The Central Pacific Under Examination

BY THE COMMISSIONERS.

The Demurrers of the Benson Surveyors Overruled and Their Trials Ordered.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The Railroad Commission began its session this morning. E. H. Miller, secretary and controller of the Central Pacific Company was examined at great length in regard to the lines consolidated with the Central Pacific, and stated, that no book detailing these facts was kept by the company. The conditions under which these consolidations occurred did not develop in the testimony given by Miller. Questions asked by the Commissioners in regard to the contracts which had been given for the construction of the road elicited the fact that Charles Crocker took one of the first and longest contracts. The Commissioners decided that word be sent to Crocker in Europe for him to return here to serve as a witness. Secretary Miller said that the contracts under which Charles Crocker had constructed portions of the Central Pacific were missing and could not be found. He also said that the Executive Committee of the road kept no record of its proceedings to his knowledge.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon was devoted to looking over the minute books of the company and documents pertaining to the leases and subsidies. The following totals were extracted from the tables in regard to the subsidies paid by the transcontinental lines to Pacific Mail Company from September 1871 to March 1886, to prevent the cutting of rates: Union Pacific $1,-934,000; Central Pacific $2,036,000; Southern Pacific, $406,00; Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, $356,000; Texas and Pacific, $164,000; Burlington and Missouri River, $42,000; Denver and Rio Grande, $48,000; Missouri Pacific and O. R. and N. and O. S. L., $101,-000; Atlantic and Pacific, $11?,000.

THE BENSON SURVEYORS

Will have to Plead to the Charges Preferred Against Them.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Justice Field and Judges Sawyer and Hoffman decided adversely to the Benson surveyors to-day in the somewhat noted criminal action for perjury and conspiracy and the defendants have been ordered to appear and plead to the indictments. The courtroom was crowded during the delivery of the decision. Two grounds were offered by counsel for John A. Benson for quashing the indictment, one of which was to the effect that the indictments were illegal on account of four of the grand jurors not being on the assessment roll. Justice Field disposed of this by holding that the interests of the defendants had not been jeopardized and that the ground was a mere technicality. The other ground was that the offense with which Benson is charged is said to have been committed in April 1885, while the old judicial district of Northern California did not come to an end until August 1886. Justice Field ruled that the proceedings taken during the December term of the District Court of California were valid under that section of the act dividing the State into two districts. "It would have been difficult," said Justice Field "for Congress to express in clearer language its purpose that for the prosecution and trial of past offenses the original district should continue in existence. This objection to the indictment on the ground that such district has ceased to exist is therefore in our judgment untenable."

The decision settles once for all the legality of all the proceedings of the District Court during the latter part of the last year. Benson, Reichart and all the surveyors will be arraigned next Monday.

A COWARDLY MURDER

Committed by a Drunken Bully on the Mexican Line.

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—Word was brought to town this morning that Jesus Moreal was shot and killed at the Tia Juana Custom House, on the Mexican line, by Ephiamo Salcido. Mr. Estudillo and a friend were coming to town, when they met Salcido, who was drunk. Moreal came up and insulted him. Deceased said he did not desire trouble, and instantly Salcido pulled a revolver and shot him through the eye. The custom officers instantly arrested the murderer and sent him under guard to Ensenada. The assassin will undoubtedly receive the full benefit of the law from the Mexican courts.

NORTHWARD HO!

An English Warship Sails for the Sealing Grounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The British man-of-war Caroline, having on board Admiral Seymour, has sailed from Victoria for the North. It is understood that she will cruise in Behring's sea in the interest of British sealers. The Admiral carried with him a copy of this government's order to the Alaskan authorities to release the seized British schooner Anna Beck.

Found in the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The body of John Mahler, a saloon keeper, who disappeared a week ago Saturday was found floating in the bay this morning. The remains were badly decomposed and were recognized with difficulty. His watch and other personal effects were found on the body which disposes of the theory that he had been foully dealt with. It is supposed that he accidently walked into the bay on leaving this saloon.

San Diego's Sewers.

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—Work was begun this morning on the sewer system of this city for which bonds of $40,000 were voted several months ago.

COLLECTOR HAGER.

A Seizure of Opium Made by Him Declared Illegal.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Judges Sawyer and Hoffman, of the United States Circuit court, decided a point raised in the case of E. W. McLean against Collector Hager this morning. In November 1885 McLean purchased in Honolulu 1000 tins of opium which had been seized by the Hawaiian Custom House officers and sold at auction and shipped it to Panama by way of San Francisco. After its arrival here, and when an attempt was made to place it on the Panama steamer, it was seized by the Collector. The opium was held for a year and then sold at auction by the United States Marshal. McLean sued the Collector to recover the opium and the Collector entered a demurrer, claiming that he acted according to law. The decision rendered this morning was merely on the demurrer, and it held that the Collector had no power to compel the payment of duty on foreign goods in transit to foreign countries, nor had he right to seize the opium.

COUNTY ASSESSMENTS.

An Interesting Question Decided at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—An interesting question in connection with the county assessments, was brought up to-day before the supervisors, acting as a county board of equalization. Sampson Tams has mortgaged a piece of property to the State university for $65,000, and to ex-Congressman McRuer a piece for $35,000. In assessing the property, Assessor Nealon declined to deduct the amount of the mortgage from the assessment and the parties, together with Attorney Noon for the regents of the university, petitioned the board to deduct the amount of the mortgage claiming that the university is an integral part of the state, that the state cannot be taxed, and that the state's interest in property should not be assessed. The motion to that effect was finally carried by the board and the mortgage will be deducted from the assessment.

A PROSPECTING PARTY

Whose Whereabouts Cannot be Discovered.

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—More light has been thrown on the dispatch recently sent about the finding of a deserted camp and the mules of a prospecting party who were supposed to have been murdered near Oak Grove, this county. The missing owners have not been discovered, though extensive search has been made; but a book found amongst the effects of a man named J. D. Blair has a memorandum which gives June 9th as the time the party left the livery stable in Los Angeles. The outfit is still held for the proper owners.

Quarrelsome Home-Seekers.

SANTA ROSA, July 25.—Constable Light arrested Levi Alexander to-day on complaint of Jas. Walsh. The parties got into a quarrel about some government land near Mount Hood, in Los Guilicos valley, and during the melee clubs and axes were vigorously wielded. Alexander has a bad wound in the leg below the knee. Walsh was bruised about the head and had two ribs broken.

An Important Discovery.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Information has been received by the State Viticultural Commission that French vineyardists have at last found a remedy for mildew and peronospera vitisota, which pest is next to phylloxera in its destructiveness to grapevines. The French remedy is the application of sulphate of copper, lime and powdered sulphur.

A Rich Strike.

TOMBSTONE, July 25.—Tombstone is jubilant over a rich strike in the Emerald mine on the 600-foot level, a six-foot ledge being struck assaying over $200 per ton. The mine is pronounced by experts to be better than the Grand Central in its palmy days. Several smaller strikes have occurred in other properties.

Barns Burned.

SANTA ROSA, July 25.—Two barns containing sixty-five tons of hay, on Frank Steele's ranch near here, were burned this morning about 1 o'clock. The loss is $1000. The barns and contents had been insured only a few days ago for $700. It is thought that the fire originated from a cigarette or pipe of one of the threshers.

Victorious Seamen.

PORT TOWNSEND, W. T., July 25.—Sixteen seaman, the crew of the ship Edward O'Brien, from San Pedro were arrested on Saturday, charged with disobeying orders. The trial occurred to-day before the United States Commissioner and resulted in the sailors winning the suit, and the costs being taxed to the vessel.

Forest Fires.

SAN JOSE, July 25.—Fire has been raging in the redwoods west from Gilroy for two days, and there seems to be no prospect of checking it soon. About 300,000 feet of cut logs belonging to Whitehart Hedges have been destroyed.

Three Years in San Quentin.

RED BLUFF, July 25.—Christie, who passed a forged check on one of the city merchants about a week ago, plead guilty in the superior court this morning and was sentenced to three years at San Quentin.

A Noted Ranch Burned.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, July 25.—The buildings of the Santa Margarita ranch with the exception of the private dwelling of General Murphy, were destroyed by fire last night with all their contents. Loss about $3000.

Accident to Dennis Kearney.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Dennis Kearney, while haranguing a crowd yesterday, in an endeavor to make a gesture, fell from the platform and broke his right wrist.

Instantly Killed.

NEVADA CITY, July 25.—A Chinaman employed in a Spanish mine near Washington was killed yesterday by falling down an air shaft 300 feet.

EASTERN NEWS.

The President Agrees to Visit St. Louis.

SERIOUS DAMAGE BY FLOODS.

Passenger Rates for Drummers Not to be Lower than the Ordinary Tariff.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—A delegation of citizens of St. Louis called upon the President at noon to-day and invited him to visit that city in October. The President accepted the invitation and said: "At the time you did me the honor, with so many of your fellow-citizens, to invite me to your city, I felt it was an invitation which should be accepted. It was not at all necessary to convince me of your good faith, that so many of your good people should come here at this inopportune season to bring this invitation, and yet you do not know how much it has pleased me to see you all. The desire to come and see you has increased each day. I do not feel now that I can do otherwise than accept your invitation. The arrangement made before was entirely free from complication and presented no likelihood of any trouble. You are aware that I agreed to visit the city of Atlanta early in October. I only spoke thus because when we are about to determine upon the day when I can visit you, this Atlanta visit must be considered. However, this is a matter that can be arranged afterwards. We have plenty of time, and I shall be glad to meet or correspond with a committee of citizens and fix the date and make arrangements. The thing must be done. I will come."

Members of the Cabinet and their families were also included in the invitation.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

Four Important Decisions by the Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission delivered an opinion to-day in four cases recently brought before it. The cases entitled Louis Larrison against the Grand Trunk Railroad Company and the Michigan Central Railroad Company against the Grand Trunk railroad were heard together. The charges are of unjust discrimination. Larrison complains that the road would not sell him a thousand-mile ticket at the prices paid by commercial travelers, and the Michigan Central complains that the Grand Trunk company was selling to commercial travelers at lower rates than to the public generally. The defendants admit the fact as charged, but aver that nothing alleged is in conflict with the law.

The opinion of the Court concluded as follows: Common carriers may continue the issuance of mileage passenger tickets, the charges for which must be reasonable and just, and free from unjust discrimination or unreasonable preference. People belonging to the class known as commercial travelers are not privileged to ride over railroads at lower rates than are paid by other persons, and whatever rates commercial travelers are made to pay, that other travellers should be asked to pay more than them is unjust discrimination; and this is true whether the tickets issued are mileage tickets or in some other form. The refusal of the defendant, the Chicago and Grand Trunk Railway, to sell complainant, Larrison, a thousand mile ticket for $20, the price at which said company was selling such tickets to commercial travellers, and the neglect to publish the rates at which defendant was offering to sell mileage tickets, were alike in conflict with the act to regulate commerce. The opinion was by Commissioner Morrison, all concurring.

A DRUMMERS' APPEAL.

The case of the St. Louis wholesale grocers against the Missouri Pacific embodies a complaint that while commutation tickets are sold at rates which would not amount to more than $15 for 1000-mile tickets, tickets to commercial travelers are not sold for less than $25. The Commission is also asked to order and direct that discrimination be made in favor of commercial travelers. The Commission does not regard the fact that commutation tickets are put on sale at a given rate, to be one that entitles the purchasers of mileage tickets to complain of unjust discrimination. If it charges a higher rate, the circumstances and conditions, the opinion says, are not the same, and the Commission finds nothing in the testimony submitted going to show that the charge of $25 for a thousand-mile ticket is unreasonable. In respect to the order it is requested to make in favor of commercial travelers, the opinion says that the entire policy and spirit of the law is against it, and when mileage tickets, as distinguished from trip tickets, are issued, they should be sold to all impartially and on the same terms. The opinion was by Commissioner Walker, all concurring.

OTHER CASES.

The case of Ralph W. Thatcher of Schenectady, N. Y., against the Fitchburg railroad and others for excessive rates on grain to Boston is dismissed for want of equity.

In the case of the Burton Stock Car Company, the decision is to the effect that there is no apparent ground on which railroads can be ordered to pay mileage to Burton in respect to the alleged unreasonableness of the charge to shippers of stock by Burton cars being in excess of that to shippers by ordinary cars. The commission says that the case is not satisfactorily presented.

Mrs. Logan Better.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 25.—A dispatch from the physicians of Mrs. Gen. Logan says that her injuries on the left arm and shoulder, as well as the scalp wound, were very serious, but that she is improving in every respect. To-day she was turned in bed for the first time since her injury.

THE EASTERN STORMS.

Disastrous Results to Valuable Property.

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 25.—Never before in its history has Miller's Falls experienced such damage by water as was occasioned by Sunday's freshets. Between that town and Irving, a distance of about six miles, are twenty-five washouts and eleven land slides by actual count. During Sunday's violent rain a torrent of water came rushing down the mountains east of Fitchburg depot gulleying badly in a short time and burying the depot flat under three feet of water. Just east of the passenger station is the freight house. This the water totally undermined, leaving a chasm sixty feet wide and 212 feet deep through the gravelly soil, passing underneath the side tracks. Freight and coal cars dropped into the chasm, and the torrent rushed down the steep incline to the river, a distance of 200 feet, tearing a gorge 20 feet deep and 50 feet wide and undermining coal sheds and shade trees in its passage. South of the Lake House is another gully fully 10 feet deep and 15 feet wide. Sections of earth which are railroad yard tracks are undermined in places quite badly and Bridge street is gullied so as to be impassable. The bridges between Miller's Falls and Irving are all gone and travel by team is impossible, on which account the transfer of passengers cannot be made. Ewing highway, passing through the woods near the river, on the flat, is six feet under water, and the culvert over the ravine at the mouth of Miller's river is washed out twenty-five feet deep, so that all travel between Miller's Falls and Northfield's is cut off. A prominent railroad man said that if the railroad puts on its entire force of workmen it will take nearly two weeks before the road is anywhere near repaired.

RIVERS RAPIDLY RISING.

DOVER, N. H., July 25.—All the rivers in this part of the State are higher now than ever known before in summer. Freshets in Lampey river at New Market this morning carried away a large part of the old dam of the New Market cotton mills; also the foundation of a number of picker mills. The engines and derrick employed in constructing the new dam, were swept away. The Cocheco river is rising rapidly and the depth of the water rushing over the dam is forty-two inches, the highest ever known in summer.

BRIDGES WASHED AWAY.

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., July 25.—The greatest damage by the storm was in the valleys of Green and Black Grocery rivers, the major portion of the flood passing down the latter river and causing greater destruction on the New York side. Hillsdale was the first victim of the overflow. Bridge after bridge was cast from the foundations. Twenty-three have been destroyed, and the total loss is estimated to be over $500,000.

RAILROAD WASHOUT

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., July 25.—A washout occurred on the Erie road two miles east of Coshocton last night, carrying off the track just as a train loaded with cheese was passing. The engine and several cars passed safely, but twenty-one cars of cheese went down the bank and were totally wrecked. Travel was delayed ten hours.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Powderly's Plan to Control Administration.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—The Chronicle publishes a story to-day to the effect that a gigantic scheme is being planned to control the Knights of Labor throughout the country. It is said to have for its object the control of the order under the present administration and is in the interest of District Assembly 49. According to a Knight of Labor who is not admitted to the scheme, it is proposed to have delegates go to the General Assembly who will sustain the administration, and this will be accomplished by establishing classes consisting of nine members in every city in the country. The classes are to be made up of the most influential Knights, and will really be branches of 49's Assembly.

A RAILROAD STRIKE

Occurs on the New Mexico, Arizona and Sonora Line.

NOGALES, Ariz., July 25.—A strike occured on the New Mexico, Arizona and Sonora railroad this morning, the brakemen refusing to go out. The trouble was caused by Superintendent Richards issuing orders compelling the men to make up their own trains in the Nogales yards. To do this the men say they would not have six hours' rest out of the twenty-four. The conductors also refuse to take trains out as, being short handed, they claim that the responsibility is too great. The men are orderly and create no disturbance, but are determined, and the trains will be stopped, including passengers and mails.

AN ASSIGNMENT

Made by the Saranac Iron Works. Heavy Liabilities.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Particulars of the failure of the Saranac Iron Company of Saranac, New York, have been received in this city. Bowen and Signor, the proprietors of the company, have made an assignment, with liabilities of from $250,000 to $300,000, and assets of about $75,000. The company has been in business since November, 1882, but for two years past has been laboring under a heavy load. It is said that the property is mortgaged for over $115,000.

Fish Law Violation.

WATSONVILLE, July 25.—The case of the State vs. the Chinese fishermen, arrested for violating the fish laws, was tried to-day before Judge Gaffey and resulted in the jury disagreeing. The case will be called again next week.

A Cattle Firm Attached.

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 25.—Attachments to the amount of $115,603 have been run on the cattle firm of Curtis & Guard of Henrietta, Tex. Their liabilities are $550,000 and assets $1,115,000.

Suspended.

NEW ORLEANS, July 25.—The Louisiana Insurance Company has suspended business. The assets of the company amount to $22,000 and the liabilities to $54,000.

GENERAL NEWS.

Two Laborers Mistaken for Escaped Convicts

SHOT AND FATALLY WOUNDED.

McGarigle Still Eluding Pursuit—Evidence in Yesterday's Boodle Trials.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.]

CHEYENNE, July 25.—Daniel Pullion and Charles Cooley, two surface graders of the Cheyenne and Northern Railroad, were shot by Wallace Linke and S. Baker this morning, near Chugwater station, seventy-five miles north of here. Pullion will die and Cooley will lose his right leg, with a possibility of death also. Linke and Baker were members of a posse who were hunting for prisoners who had escaped from the Laramie county jail. Six prisoners, including one murderer and two horse thieves, gagged the jailer and escaped to the hills. Two were captured on Saturday and two yesterday. The two out were the murderer, Ed Lynn, and the horse thief, Lee Jones. Lynn and Jones were heard of in the vicinity of Chugwater on Sunday, and when the deputies rode in sight of Pullion and Cooley this morning they thought they were the escaped prisoners. They shot at them and ordered them to halt. Simultaneously the graders were terrified and started to run, when they were shot down. When Linke and Baker discovered the mistake, they were horrified, and rode their horses rapidly northward to escape a mob of 100 graders and tracklayers, who threated lynching. The wounded men were brought to Cheyenne.

THE CHICAGO BOODLERS.

Efforts to Head Off McGarigle—Yesterday's Trials.

CHICAGO, July 25.—To-night an officer from Chicago in pursuit of McGarigle reached Mackinaw island, and is inaugurating measures to prevent the fugitive from getting through the straits to Canada. It is understood that the Sheriff is in communication with the commander of the United States revenue cutter ,'Andrew Johnson" at Milwaukee, and that the federal government's only craft on the lake will be utilized in the chase. Tomorrow's Inter Ocean will state that McGarigle will not be safe in Canada, and it is hinted that should he be once located, the lack of extradition will not prevent his capture in secret by American officers and a hurried return to Chicago.

A REFUSAL TO ASSIST.

The Daily News Milwaukee special says that Captain Baker, of the revenue cutter "Johnson," has declined to seize any steam yacht or tug McGarigle may have taken refuge on, the latter not having been a Federal prisoner.

THE TRIALS.

The escape of McGarigle gave fresh interest to the boodle trial to-day and there was a jam of spectators. Two prominent contractors testified in detail how they and the twelve defendants had month after month robbed the county of thousands of dollars. In one instance one of them furnished about $12,000 worth of material for a road to the county insane asylum and to obtain the contract expended over $7000 among the defendants. The county eventually had to pay this sum as the contractor added that amount to his bill. Two station agents of the Milwaukee and St. Paul road were paid a couple of hundred dollars each to certify falsely as to the amount of material delivered. A milk contractor said that his contracts cost him about $2500 each to obtain but that in the end it came out of the county treasury.

IN INDIAN WATERS.

Eight Hundred Lives Lost—A Terrible Storm.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The steamer City of Rio Janeiro arrived last night, bringing advices to July 1st and Yokohama news to July 9th. By the loss of the steamer Sir John Lawrence, during a terrific cyclone in May in the Bay of Bengal, 800 lives were lost, mainly pilgrims of the best families in Bengal. The storm was the severest ever experienced in that quarter since 1866, judging from the reports of the vessels which weathered it. The passengers on board the Sir John Lawrence numbered 750, the the officers and crew numbering 50. The passengers were mainly women going on a pilgrimage to the famous temple of Juggernaut at Pooree, and there is scarely a native family in Calcutta which does not bemoan the loss of some relative by the disaster.

COMPETITION

Causes a Cut in Trans-Continental Freight Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The transcontinental agents met in the office of General Agent Russell, of the Santa Fe road, at noon to-day and made some changes in rates, to go into effect at once. The rate on mustard seed to New York was put at $1 per 100 pounds, and on leather the same. Honey in sealed cans was placed on the same footing as shipments of canned goods. These changes were made necessary on account of the competitive charges of the Canadian Pacific and the Pacific Mail.

INSURANCE INVESTIGATIONS

Being Made in the San Diego Hotel Policies.

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—The general manager of the Pacific Coast Insurance Union arrived here yesterday to investigate certain transactions. A local firm had insured the Hotel del Coronado for $90,000 at the rate of $2.75 per $100, while the rate for hotels with bar attached is $3.50. The Coronado Beach investigation resulted in the cancellation of the policy and prohibiting the firm of Pierce & Worswick from putting any insurance on the hotel for one year and also fining them $50.

DIAMOND DUST.

Some Good Games Yesterday on the Ball Field.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Brooklyn, 4; St. Louis, 2.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Metropolitans, 5; Louisville, 3.

BALTIMORE, July 25.—Baltimore, 2; Cleveland, 4.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—Athletics, 5; Cincinnati, 2.

DETROIT VS. CHICAGO.

DETROIT, July 25.—Four thousand people enjoyed to-day's game between the Detroit and Chicago teams. The California wonder ceased to be a wonder early in the game, and at times phenomenal fielding alone prevented the home club from scoring more runs. Ryan, Burns, Williamson, Thompson and Bennett led in the fielding honors. It was the first game Bennett caught for many weeks and his return seemed to strengthen the whole team, Getzein especially being effective through the encouraging support of the veteran. Score—Detroit, 15; Chicago, 3.

BOSTON VS. NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 25. The game today between Boston and New York was pretty nearly a model. The players wore badges of mourning out of respect to first-baseman McKennon, who died yesterday. Score: Boston 4, New York 11.

PITTSBURG VS. INDIANAPOLIS.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—Heavy batting was the distinguishing feature of today's game, and poor base running and catching made the Indianapolis team lose several runs. Dennis' play at short stop was a repetition of the brilliant record he made last Saturday. McGeachy also played a fine game in center field, and McCormick took the batting honors, making four singles out of five times at the bat. Score: Pittsburg 7, Indianapolis 6.

WASHINGTON VS. PHILADELPHIA.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Both the pitchers in the Philadelphia-Washington game to-day were very effective and only one man, Farrar, was able to do anything with Shaw's curves. The Washingtons also fielded splendidly. Score: Washington 3, Philadelphia 2.

Boyer Dead.

SANTA CRUZ, July 25.—Frank J. Boyer, the young Englishman who accidentally shot himself yesterday, died at ten minutes past nine this evening.

THE PERKINS CASE.

The Unfair Plaintiff Does Not Appear in Court.

Yesterday morning quite a large crowd of people gathered in Judge Melverny's court to see what would be done when the case of Perkins vs. Baldwin was called. The lawyers on both sides were present, with the exception of W. T. Williams, and when the Baldwin side offered to file their supplemental answer, as published in the HERALD Sunday, Hon. S. M. White asked that a recess be ordered until Mr. Williams arrived. This request was granted, and soon Mr. Williams hove in sight. The supplemental answer was then filed, and the case was continued until the 16th of August.

Louise was not present, and, although people close to the Baldwin side say that she can be produced in twenty-four hours, it can be put down that she won't be produced. The little girl has thrown her friends beyond doubt, and she has lost all the sympathy which people have felt for her by her action.

Baldwin left for the East yesterday and carried in his pocket the compromise papers as signed by Louise. He was very angry that a compromise had been effected during his absence, and declared that he intended to fight the case, and that his agent had been to officious in settling the matter. Baldwin, however, in the midst of his indignant talk, winked his left eye and Unruh did not seem very much affected by the strictures made on the man who brought about the settlement. W. T. Williams, of counsel for Miss Perkins, has a theory that the girl compromised because she was induced to believe that Baldwin would get a divorce from his present wife and marry her. Fallon, who is accused of being intimate with Louise, telegraphs that he will send by letter a full account of the matter. The whole thing is now doubtless ended, but it has cost Baldwin a pot of money, while Louise has gained a considerable amount of notoriety.

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN.

Louise Lets Go of Baldwin and Verona Takes Hold.

It is said that Verona Baldwin whose little unpleasantness with Lucky B. is too well known on this coast to repeat will shortly begin suit against that wealthy individual for $500,000. She will allege seduction and breach of promise and will also ask that Baldwin be required to support a child which now bears her name and for whose existence she alleges Balwin is responsible.

The millionaire in the meantime is contemplating a tour in Europe and this means more hard work for his fiduciary agent.

Undelivered Messages.

Messages remain uncalled for at the Western Union Telegraph office for the following persons, held for the want of proper address: George L. Hazzard, John Huff, Briggs, A. G. McDonald, W. H. Thompson, Mrs. R. M. Purcels, James M. Loving, Robert Gordon, George H. Bower, Vaud Veyze & Co., J. DeWatt, A. Balderman, E. Muldy, Auerbach Bros., M. M. Cann, Delia Leferber, B. Huntington, W. J. Langley, Deste, D. W. Coquillett, John Woods and W. H. Stein.

Smoking Opium.

Officers Lemon and Bosqui fell down upon an opium den on Upper Main street last eveniug and captured two visitors, who gave the names of Irene Bishop and A. D. Thomas. The female is quite handsome and was nicely dressed in a gray walking suit. She gave her home as Anaheim, and gave evidence of having been reared to share a better fate. Thomas was also handsomely dressed, and is a commercial traveler for a San Francisco music firm.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Leo Announces the Policy of the Holy See.

PEACE AND CONCILIATION.

A Disastrous and Severe Earthquake Visits the Republic of Ecuador.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

ROME, July 25.—Le Moniteur publishes the text of a letter addressed by the Pope to Cardinal Rampolla on June 5th, when the latter assumed the functions of Pontifical Secretary of State. In this letter the Pope explains fully the principles which he has followed in the government of the church.

He declares that he took upon himself the mission to reconcile the Pope and Government and the uncivilized States, referring the first to Italy. The Pope's ideas were expounded in the consistory allocution of May 23d, when he laid down as a basis of pacification with Italy the acknowledgement of the independence of the Holy See. He reiterates his claims to territorial sovereignty as an indispensable condition of settlement, all other schemes, he says, being unworthy of consideration.

Adverting next to Austria, the Pope says that the piety of the Emperor and the devotion of the imperial family to the Holy See have rendered the best possible mutual relations, and the wise statesmen enjoying the confidence of the Emperor have promoted religion in Austro-Hungary and the establishment of perfect concord.

France, the elder daughter of the church, was mentioned as a source of many evils by the Pope, who trusted that these evils would be dispelled through the observance of the letter and the spirit of the facts solemnly concluded with the church.

Turning to Spain, the Pope says that one of the first needs is a union of the Catholics in defense of their religion, in devotion to the Holy See and in reciprocal charity, so that Spain may not be misguided by personal aims.

Regarding Prussia, the Pontiff says that it is necessary to continue the work of religious peacemaking to its full achievement.

The Pope concluded with a reference to fostering the missions as a means of leading back to the church her separated people.

Distinguished Guests.

LONDON, July 25.—The lord mayor this evening gave a banquet to the members of the conference on the law of nations. Among the guests were Mr. Phelps, United States Minister to England, Honorable David Dudley Field, Honorable Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania, Consul General Waller, U. S. Senator Hawley, Halsted, of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, Honorable Samuel Dougherty, Colonel Barr, of Philadelphia, Honorable Wirt Dexter, of Chicago, and Rev. S. G. Hawkins, of Nebraska.

Royalty in Danger.

LONDON, July 25.—The Duchess of Edinburgh to-day launched a life boat at Bembridge, Isle of Wight. The temporary staging on which the duchess and the members of her party stood during the ceremonies and on which was Princess Beatrice, wife of Prince Henry of Battenburg, was precipitated towards the sea and they barely escaped being thrown into the water.

THE BURLINGTON ROAD

Withdraws From Carrying California Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The Burlington and Missouri River Road, running between Denver and the Missouri river has notified the Southern Pacific Company that it has withdrawn from carrying California business. The reason assigned is that the people of Nebraska and the railroad commission of that State are constantly waging war upon it because it hauls California business for one fourth of a cent per mile on some articles, while charging them 2, 3 and 4 cents from and to different points in Nebraska.

The amount of California business that the company has been generally receiving has been so small that it thinks it best to to throw it away, and cultivate the friendship of the people with whom it has to do locally. This road is the only Eastern connection of the Denver and Rio Grande.

President Boggs, of the Board of Prison Directors, has granted the application of Warden McComb for an investigation of the charges made against him.

DAILY HERALD.

BODKIN'S REPUTATION.

His Character in His Missouri Home.

HIS WIFE'S TESTIMONY.

Bodkin's Children and His Wife Afraid of Elam. The Bodkin Dog Hated Him.

When the case of J. J. Bodkin charged with the killing of Lucius Elam, was called in Judge Cheney's court yesterday morning, S. M. White, counsel for the defense, announced that he had to be present in the Perkins-Baldwin case in Judge O'Melveny's court, the trial was continued until 1 P. M. At that hour the defense opened and Mr. White made the opening address, in which he reviewed the facts of the case. He stated that the defendant was an old man, while the deceased, who undoubtedly was the aggressor, was a powerful fellow, possessed of great strength. He persecuted Bodkin for ten months before he was finally killed, Elam allowed his stock to roam at random on the lands of Bodkin.

The deposition of W. H. Vantz, mayor of St. Genevieve, Missouri, was read. Deponent stated that he knew Bodkin in Missouri for a number of years, where he was a school teacher. His reputation for peace and quietness was good. His reputation for integrity was never questioned.

The deposition of G. H. Gemm was next read. He knew Bodkin in St. Genevive, Missouri. Knew Bodkin intimately. His reputation for obedience to the laws and for peace and quietude was never questioned. He was engaged in teaching school, and he was respected by all who knew him.

Depositions of Drs. E. J. Drury and C. F. Garson were also read. They also knew Bodkin in St. Genevieve, Missouri, where they were intimately associated with him. Bodkin's reputation for peace, quietness and honesty was good, and in fact it was never discussed.

William M. Mitchell, of St. Geneveive, also testified to Bodkin's reputation. He has heard him spoken of as a good and peaceful citizen.

C. A. Rozier, prosecuting attorney at St. Genevieve, also knew Bodkin when he was editor of the Missouri Free Press. He was looked upon as a good citizen and highly respected in the community.

Dr. R. F. Manning, of St. Genevieve, asserted that Bodkin's reputation in the community was excellent. Resided in the same building with Bodkin and was on intimate terms with him.

R. J. Floyd was then called as a witness for the defense: Have resided in this county for nineteen years. Have known Bodkin for nine years. He resided near me at Savannah for three years. During the time he resided in that community his reputation for peace and quietness was never discussed. He taught school and I was trustee.

John Gess next testified: Have lived in Savannah for twenty-five years. Have known Mr. Bodkin for nine years. He taught school in our neighborhood and his general reputation for peace and quietness was good. Never heard it questioned. Had a talk with him last summer with reference to his leaving Orange. The prosecution objected to the line of testimony and the witness was withdrawn.

MRS. BODKIN'S TESTIMONY.

Mary Bodkin, wife of the defendant, was next called and testified as follows: I have been married fourteen years and have eight children, the youngest of which was born in March, 1886. Knew Elam. First became acquainted with him some time in 1884. He called at our house. Was pretty well acquainted with him. He used to have his meals at our house. Some time in April or May, 1885, I was washing clothes in the ditch. Elam was at his house near by, kicking and abusing a dog which my husband had given him. I crossed the ditch and went over to him. His sister was by the hedge, weeping. She told me not to go near him. I, however, went and told him not to abuse the dog, but to take it out and kill it if that was what he was trying to do. He told me to mind my own business. My husband at that time was teaching school some distance in the country. Elam never spoke to me again until after Mr. Bodkin sued him, and the suit was compromised. Elam rode up to the house and cursed and abused me. My husband came in shortly afterward "scared to death." At least he appeared very much frightened. I told him that Elam had said to me, 'G— d— you, if you have anything to say come out and say it.' When Elam rode away he went over the bridge toward his house. Elam came back again and called to my husband, who was cultivating, and told him to "bring back that wood, G— d— quick." The next morning, Sunday, my husband between five and six o'clock called me out of bed. I heard Elam's voice. He was very angry. When I got out Elam was making tracks for home. My husband was milking the cow. On Monday morning I was in bed and I heard somebody cross on the bridge. He was on horseback, and going as fast as he could. I asked my little girl where her papa was. I got out and saw Elam on our land which we rented, right west of the house. He was talking to Bodkin. When I got there Elam turned in his saddle and said: "G—d d—m you, what brought you here." After that I said, "Mr. Elam, we have stood this a long time." I said, "we can't have you running on our vineyard." He replied, "You can't help yourself." He turned in his saddle again and said that I had been talking about his sisters. Mr. Bodkin interrupted and said that I was his wife and that he would protect me. Elam then rode off. He stopped again and told my husband that he claimed the whole country around. My husband told him that he had charge of the Matthew's place. Elam asked to see the papers, and he went up to the house and we showed them to him. He replied that he intended to stake on it himself. He asked my husband to allow him to use it. Bodkin replied that he would not. "But," said Bodkin, "I'll tell you what I will do. If you will be friends again I will give you half of it." "No," said Elam, "I will make no such compromise." He then left, and when he got a ways off he passed two men and turned in his saddle and in a loud voice, so that the men could hear him, sung out: "I will settle this matter, but you won't settle." This all happened in June, 1886. Shortly afterwards my husband was at work cultivating and Elam was riding on horseback beside him. Shortly afterwards my husband came to the house to dinner. He was "frightened to death as usual." He was in poor health, suffering from asthma. From that time my husband was afraid to work on the place alone. Before that time he never had assistance. About that time I advised my husband to go down to the beach and give Elam a chance to cool off. We were all frightened out of our lives on account of him. We left and gave our place in charge of Mr. Kent, who was very friendly with Elam. We stopped at the beach five days. We then returned home. On the following Saturday Mr. Bodkin began hauling hay. He hauled five loads and started for another. I was surprised to see him return with the empty wagon and Elam riding by his side. They crossed the bridge but did not come near our house. Bodkin came up to the house and started for another load of hay. He was unloading the hay when Elam crossed the bridge with a butcher knife and Bodkin was loading his gun. After awhile Elam left. I went with my husband to Mr. Robert's who came to help Bodkin. The next day my husband started for Los Angeles to consult with the lawyers. We were all afraid of Elam. On Monday he came back accompanied with Joseph Ferguson, who stayed at our house nine days and assisted Bodkin. The first night about 10 o'clock two shots were fired through the house, striking right over my husband's head. My husband loaded his gun and went out, but soon returned. The shots struck on the east side of our house, the side facing Elam's. I knew that they came from his direction because we were so much annoyed by him. When Ferguson left, Mr. Bodkin went with him. I told him that I could not live there and I asked him to try and get a school. He was gone ten or eleven days. He made a second trip, but had not secured a school. He shortly afterwards got a letter from Dr. Reed, giving him a school at Cucamonga. He left in about a month and was gone four weeks. I never left the place while he was gone. In the first part of August I saw Mr. Elam go up toward Mr. Squires. I told Bodkin that now was a good chance to cultivate. He went out and went to work. About 12 o'clock I heard Elam's voice and saw him watering his horse near where my husband was working. When he saw me he said: "G— d— you, go back to the house and attend to your own business." He began quarreling about a cow. He then started to leave, and turning in his saddle he shook his fist at my husband and said: "G— d— you, you won't always be there. We will settle this matter in a week, either in here or some place else. The sooner the better." He also said something about my chickens bothering him. In order not to have any trouble with him on this score I sold every chicken on the place. Whenever Elam would see any of my children he would curse and abuse them. I often heard him. Whenever I would send them for water he would curse and abuse them. They never said anything to him. They were too much afraid of him. They feared his shadow. When they went to school they would go across the fields so that they could hide in the brush if they saw Elam coming. Whenever Elam would see me he would sing for my benefit. He always sang the song "my father and mother were Irish and I am Irish too." I am Irish and he used to sing so that I could hear him. On one Saturday night rocks were thrown against the side of our house. It frightened us nearly to death. On another night Miss Ida Parker stayed all night at my house. About twelve o'clock our dog came in and got under the bed and began to growl. I knew that there was somebody around. We both got up and looked out of the window. While we were standing there a fusilade of stones were fired against the house.

At this point the court adjourned the case until 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Soldier and Humorist.

Colonel George Pearce Andrews, U. S. A., who died a few days ago in the northern part of the State, was a frequent contributor to the press of California in early days. He was a wit, both in prose and verse, and many of his good things have gone the rounds without credit. A writer in the San Francisco Evening Post rescues some of his forgotten pieces from oblivion, and gives them place in quite an extended obituary article upon the deceased soldier. Here are verses written by him in the days sewing machines were coming into general use:

AN OLD FOGY'S PROTEST.

Before Grover & Baker appeared upon earth,
What pleasure in life could be seen?
What time had we then for amusement or mirth,
When each girl was a sewing machine?

But now life goes sweetly and just like a charm,
Not a pleasure in nature is missing,
But, dear Grover & Baker, I live in alarm
Lest you make a machine to do kissing.

For sewing and so forth your wonderful art
I can all very well understand,
But courting and kissing—I choose, for my part,
To continue to do them "by hand."

So many attachments are patented now—
No new ones our patience can stand—
If you make one for kissing, by Cupid, I vow
To infringe it all over the land.

Another one went the rounds of the newspapers and was afterward, through mistake, published in a posthumous volume of John Phœnix. It was called

ADVICE TO A LOVER.

"Dost thou love and seek to win her?
Heed an old, experienced sinner,
How to make her soft eyes glisten,
Listen;

"Seize her hand and warmly grasp it,
To your heart then fondly clasp it;
Fear not that your touch distress her.
Press her!

"Should she smile, the skies look brighter.
Let your answering glance requite her;
Sit beside her close and snug, or Hug her.

"Should she frown, be not afraid.
Hug again the scornful maid;
Try with lover's arts to please her:
Squeeze her.

"Never yield to melancholy;
Such in love were idle folly.
Wouldst thou win the fair Melissa,
Kiss her.

"If she then adheres to reason
(Foe to love), punish her treason.
Tell her naught will her enamor,
—— her."

A Woman's Sudden Death.

Coroner Meredith held an inquest yesterday afternoon on the remains of Mrs. Mary Diechman, who died suddenly yesterday morning at her home, 433 Workman street, East Los Angeles.

George Diechman, husband of the deceased, was the first witness called. He testified that he left home at 6:20 o'clock yesterday morning, and that his wife was apparently in good health. He did not know of her death until near noon.

Several other witnesses were sworn and all agreed that Mr. and Mrs. Diechman lived happily together, and never had any quarrels.

The jury returned a verdict that deceased came to her death from natural causes.

Attempted Rape.

E. B. Powers, deputy constable of Chino township, San Bernardino county, came to the city yesterday and arrested John Fahey on a charge of attempted rape on a young lady seventeen years of age. It is alleged that Fahey assaulted the young lady, whose name is withheld, and in the struggle tore her clothes and otherwise injured her. He was frightened away by the appearance of other parties and made good his escape. He was lodged in the county jail last night and will be taken to San Bernardino county to-day.

A Suggestion.

Those persons who have heard so much of the far-famed Dr. Henley's Celery, Beef and Iron, and yet have not given it a personal trial, would do well, if they have any complaint of the liver, bowels, stomach or kidneys, or are troubled with debility, insomnia, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, or gastric irritability, to give this wonderful discovery a fair trial. Celery, Beef and Iron are worth millions to the human family. There is nothing deleterious in this tonic, but is a safe and valuable remedy for many troubles. For sale by all druggists.

J. M. HALE & CO.'S DOUBLE COLUMN "AD."

THE "GENT" FROM TULARE.

He came from the North—from the "Northern Citrus Belt,"
Where the storms of the winter never were felt—
In his mind—he came here to see
If the things he had read about, in reality could be.

The first thing he noticed upon arriving in town
Was the big boom in real estate—prices marked down;
Earth $50 per inch on Washington street,
Advertised at this price as remarkably cheap.

Villages laid out which on paper looked great,
A closer inspection revealed an embryo state—
A $300,000 "hotel" and a grand boulevard,
Gold coin given away—an immense drawing card.

Lots selling at $2700—one-third down;
Brass bands attending—lunch served on the ground.
He finally concluded he'd like to invest,
Provided his wife in Tulare thought best.

He packed up his grip—set out for the train,
In an awful big hurry to get back again.
But suddenly stopped—in front of HALE'S STORE
Stood a very large crowd—fully sixty or more.

Supposing naturally 'twas "four dollars for one,"
He stood up in line; he thought 'twould be fun
To tell his wife how things are done
In the beautiful city of the Southern Sun.

SAN GABRIEL VALLEY

Land and Water Company

INCORPORATED MAY 20TH, 1887.

Capital Stock, - - $1,600,000.

— WITH THE FOLLOWING OFFICERS —

H. H. MARKHAM, President. L. W. DENNIS, Vice-President.
E. P. JOHNSON, Treasurer. A. L. BURBANK, Secretary.
F. L. RAYMOND, Supt. and Manager.

DIRECTORS—H. H. Markham, L. W. Dennis, C.H. Bradley, F. L. Raymond, N. Vanderlip.

Have recently purchased the famous property, known as the Ford, Titus, Gibbs, Ames, Bradbury, Clap and Howard, more recently known as the Hall & Stillson tract,

Have subdivided part of the above named into fine business and resident lots, also a great many one-acre villa tracts, and located a new town,

EAST SAN GABRIEL.

Ten miles from the Plaza on the Southern Pacific Railroad, in the heart of the San Gabriel Valley.

The immense improvements contemplated by the company consist of laying out San Gabriel Boulevard, about four miles long, running north and south, connecting Almanda Park with El Monte Road. Two other fine Avenues, crossing the San Gabriel Boulevard, at right angles, known as Broadway and Grand Central; building a Street Car line, Hotel; piping water from the Titus place, which affords an inexhoustible supply. In connection with other improvements, the Southern Pacific Railroad Company have already given orders to build one of the finest depots in Southern California, Warehouses, Freight Depot, etc.

The freight shipment from this point last year being over 44,000,000 pounds, it is most conclusive evidence that it is the place for banks, stores, warehouses, etc.—where monies invested in buildings of this kind will pay large dividends from the start

The property offered for sale being located on either side of the railroad, makes the whole tract central and accessable to the business portion of the town.

The company now offer the property for sale on the following liberal terms: One-third cash; deferred payments in one and two years, at 8 per cent. per annum.

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. E. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—

"Medical science has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so great value as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effectual than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Our Vineyards.

At no period in the history of viticulture in Southern California has this important industry appeared more promising than at the present time. The demand for California vintages in the consumptive markets of the country has been increasing for some years past. At the moment, sound, mature wines are exceedingly hard to find. The State is almost bare, even of the products of the grape crop of one year ago.

The natural effect of this condition of the market is noted in a material advance in the prices offered for good wines. Those who have held their vintages up to the present time have made as large a percentage of profit as the Los Angeles real estate operators did out of their best deals.

The latest reports from the various parts of the State north of Fresno indicate that the crop of grapes now on the vines is decidedly below the average. As a rule the result does not promise to be much above a full half crop. The vintage to be pressed next fall will be far less than that of a year ago. Under these circumstances the prices for sound wines are certain to be fully maintained.

Now, while the growing crop in the northern counties is far below normal in quantity, with us the case is reversed. Seldom have the vines of Southern California proved more prolific than the present year. This excellent condition of our vineyards is universal, so far as we have any definite information from this end of the State. Here, about Los Angeles, the vines are loaded with a superabundance of bunches, and the berries are rapidly filling out in a most promising manner. Portions of this section which a year ago were undergoing a set-back in viticulture by reason of some lack of vigor in the vines, this season report the plants in a most vigorous state of growth and with excellent crop prospects.

Some of the oldest vineyards in certain parts of the county are being neglected to such an extent that they are going rapidly to decay. This is, however, strictly confined to the more rapidly increasing centers of population, where city growth is forcing such pursuits to the wall. Elsewhere the vignerons are observed to be paying more than usual attention to their vineyards, and never have the various parts of the county been seen in a better state of tilth, with fewer weeds to sap the moisture from the soil. In all quarters a little investigation will reveal the fact noted above, that the show of grapes on the canes is of unusual abundance, and, so far as developed, of excellent quality.

Los Angeles county has heretofore produced nearly a full moiety of the wines of the State. Until recent years she produced a much larger proportion of them. This season her output will probably equal that of all the rest of the State, wines and brandies being both considered.

Up to this time no price has been fixed for the grapes of various kinds in the several sections of the county. But it is a certain matter that a market will open at paying prices for all the good grapes to be had. Where this may be found not to be the case, it will be found to be because of a lack of wineries to handle the crop. Prices, the vignerons expect to range at $15 to $20 per ton. Some varieties may bring a little more. Were there plenty of wineries in all parts of the county good varieties would easily command the highest figures. At that price for grapes a vineyard is a better money producer than a bank. We have inspected four-year old vineyards of the Zinfandel variety which certainly have six to eight tons of grapes to the acre on the vines. It is hard to beat $120 to $140 per acre for a crop. Unknowing people wonder why the owners of such property should hold it at $500 per acre. The fact is such vineyards are intrinsically worth $1000 an acre. If the crop is sold to the vintners the land will pay a good interest on that price after defraying the expenses of the year in caring for the vines.

But this brings us to a phase of this industry which must be wrought out in the near future. Vine-growers must learn to make their own wines. This is the rule in Europe, and its adoption here is only a matter of time. When the grapes are sold to the vintners, the grower cares very little for the condition of his crop as it goes to the crusher. There is not enough care taken in the selection of the vintage. If the grower is to make his own wine as in France, Germany and Italy, he will soon learn that all depends on quality, and that noble wines cannot be made by careless methods. When he knows that the price of his product, and his reputation as a producer depends on his making a fine wine, he will see that every grape sent to the crusher is properly matured, that it is picked clean, free from leaves and all other extraneous matter.

That is all necessary to put our vintages on a par with the most renounced of the old world. The makers of fine wines in Europe select each grape that goes into the press. Each bunch is picked over, the rotten grapes, the green ones, the partly developed, all the dirt, stems and leaves are rigorously rejected, and nothing but fine grapes go to the production of these wines. Nor is this any untried theory here. Years ago some of our pioneers, notably the late Hon. B. D. Wilson, made casks of wines of extraordinary fineness. From the now too much despised Mission grape—for it was all there was in the country in those days—he made clarets, and white wines, too, which have been declared by the best of judges to be the equal of anything ever made in any quarter of the globe.

THE present status of the wheat market in this State is one of the strangest anomalies on record. Last season one of the biggest deals ever attempted to corner any commodity was made in this cereal. The syndicate embraced in its reach San Francisco, Chicago, New York and London. The deal collapsed at all points excepting San Francisco. Here one of the most gigantic money powers in the country was at the bellows, and this power is loath to think it has failed. The trading in last year's wheat came duly to an end on June 30th last, and a new season was on the floor of the Call Board. The bulls called upon those on the other side to settle, but a dispute arose between the two factions. Nearly a month of the new deal has passed and still the affair is as far as ever from adjustment. Still the bull side is forcing values to a notch far above the parity of the markets of the world. Wheat is sold in San Francisco on call at nearly two cents per pound, a price seldom reached in that market. It is, cost, freight and insurance considered, fully twenty per cent. above the parity of the markets of Europe. Under such circumstances it is quite natural that the farmers of the State should be sending forward their grain with all possible dispatch. To realize these abnormal prices the stuff must be actually delivered and at once. While the bull syndicate try to keep up the market to its present pitch, they must take all the spot wheat offered at their own prices in settlement of their claims. The bears find the best way to settle is to shove every ton of wheat they can get into the hands of their opponents and force them to ship it abroad at a large net loss. So long as the "longs" can carry on the deal on paper as matters now stand there is no limit to the squeeze they can inflict on their victims; but if the latter can force the stuff upon their oppressors and compel them to dispose of it at a loss, there is some limit to their own sufferings. The farmers in all parts of the State cry aloud for better transportation facilities te carry their crop to tide-water, where they may obtain the present ruling prices before an adjustment may be reached.

LOS ANGELES has in the present incumbent a Mayor of which our citizens may well feel proud. Mr. Workman took the office with the honest determination that he would serve the city with an eye single to her good. He is doing this not only earnestly, but also wisely. The Mayor's latest achievement is in a much needed improvement in the sprinkling of the streets. Time out of mind the inefficiency of this service has been notoriously known. As the city has grown the lack of sprinkling has become more and more a hardship to dwellers within the city gate. Mayor Workman set himself to the task of remedying this crying evil and he has succeeded. The proceedings of the City Council in our local columns will furnish details of this good work of the Mayor, and all good citizens will unite in the acclaim, "Well done, good and faithful servant of the people."

ANNOUNCEMENT—THE ALAMEDA Street Syndicate. A few Shares still remain untaken in the Syndicate formed to purchase, subdivide, and put on the market, 16 Residence Lots, 41¼ acres on Alameda street at $1250 per acre. Investors are informed that on and after WEDNESDAY, the 27th JULY, the price of Shares will be based on the rate of $1500 per acre. This advance in price for the valuable property now offered, is justified by the enormous improvements now in progress, including the street Car line now building along the Santa Fe avenue front of the property, the projected Cable Road along Alameda street front, and the proposed Street Car line down Central Avenue near by.

No surrounding property can be had for less than $2000 per acre; and until Wednesday, the 27th July, when, as before stated, the price will be raised to $1500 per acre. One or more Tenths may be secured by a cash payment of $1156.25 for each Tenth interest.

WHAT FINISHED MADAME EEF.

A Frenchman's Version of the Temptation and Fall in the Garden of Eden.

[St. Louis Sayings.]

Monsieur Adam was all alone in ze garden. He have plenty for eat and and plenty for drink, and ees very comfortable, but he 'ave not much clothes.

Von evening he lie down on ze ground for take a nap. In ze morning he woke viz pain in his side.

He say: "Oh, mon Dieu, vat ees ze mattair, eh! Ah! Le Diable, ees one rib gone! I shall take un promenade in ze open air. I shall feel bettaire."

He promenade. Madame Eef she approach. It is ze first lady that Monsieur Adam have ever met; it ees Madame Eef's first entree to society. They approach each other and both very much attract. Monsieur Adam he say: "Madame, shall I 'ave ze plaisair for promenade viz you?"

Madame Eef respond: "I shall be most happy;" and they valk together.

They promenade under an arbre; an arbre viz ze pretty appel on it; an appel viz ze red streak.

Monsieur le Serpent he sit up in ze arbre. He 'ave pretty mask all over hees face—look like elegant gentilhomme.

Madame Eef she see Monsieur le Serpent viz ze pretty mask and ze appel viz ze red streak, and she ees very much attract.

Mosieur le Serpent he say: "Madame Eef, shall I 'have ze plaisair for peek you an appel?"

Madame Eef she reach out her hand for take ze appel.

Monsieur Adam he say: "Hola! hola! voila! Vot you do, eh? Do you not know ees prohibit? You must not touch ze appel. If you eat ze appel you shall become like un Dieu—you shall know ze good from ze evil!"

Monsieur le Serpent takes un pinch of snuff. He say: "Monsieur Adam eos prohibit for you. If you eat ze appel you shall become like a Dieu—you shall know ze good from ze evil. But Madame Eef—Madame Eef—she cannot become more of a goddess than she ees now."

And zat finish Madame Eef.

All Sorts.

"O, mother, what do you think," remarked the high school girl, "our minister has an amanuensis." "You don't say!" replied the old lady, with much concern. "Is he doctorin' for it?"—[Pittsburg Chronicle.

First Farmer—"Ever been up to the city?" Second Farmer—"Once." "Only once, eh? Got took in, did ye?" "Yes, but I'm getting on them city folks now." "Ye air? How?" "I'm takin' city boarders."—[Omaha World.

"Johnny," inquired his aunt, "what do you like best of all?" "Candy," replied Johnny. "And what after that?" inquired his aunt. "More candy," replied Johnny, after a moment's deliberation.—[Pittsburg Dispatch.

Montana's Queer Water: Omaha Man—"So you live in Montana, eh? I thought once of going to Montana to live, but I did not like the water there." Montana Child—"Why, the water is real nice." "I am accustomed to soft water, but the water in Montana is hard." Oh, no, only in winter.—[Omaha World.

Mrs. Foshay (to prospective nursery maid)—"You are fond of children, of course?" P. N. M.—"Fond of 'em? I should say I was, ma'am. If I hadn't a been I wouldn't a nursed my sister's nine young ones that was down with scarlet fever till every one of them died, ma'am, and buried the last of 'em a week come Friday."—[Tid Bits.

Little Dot—"I don't like to stay in this house this way. What makes it rain so hard?" Mamma—"So the grass can grow and the flowers grow out, dear." "Does the angels send down all this wet just for the grass and flowers?" "I suppose so." "Well, what do they slosh it all over everything for? There ain't any flowers in the streets." "It can't be helped, I guess." "I guess maybe they are hired angels, and is used to washing windows."—[Exchange.

A pointed explanation: Pompana—"There is more in psychology than you think of, Bagley. Let me relate a queer case. Thirty-four years ago my friend Bigen was shot in the side while fighting Indians, and with each recurring anniversary of that day, that very minute of the hour, he feels the twinge of the bullet, and at no other time. Now, can you account for that?" Bagley—"Very easily." "Indeed; How?" "Your friend is a liar!"—[Philadelphia Call.

"How is the work progressing in Dakota?" asked a Boston minister of a good brother at the Baptist anniversary the other day. "Well, I am getting along pretty well, but it's rather discouraging. The first week I went there I had big congregations. One day there were 150 down on their knees weeping and praying. A man came in and said there were two detectives coming down the road, and every blessed person got up and skipped."—[Minneapolis Journal, Another outrage: Gotham Man—"What! you voted against my old friend De Goode?" Sambo—"Yes, sah. De Goode may've been good 'nough w'en he lived in the Norf, but he's got mighty mean an' unp triotic since he moved down Souf." G. M.—Well, well! What do you charge him with specially?" S.—"Insultin' de colored folks, sah." G. M.—"Impossible! He was an original abolitionist." S.—"Can't help dat, sah. He done put up a barbed-wire fence 'round his chicken coop, sah."—[Tid Bits.

Terrible Pains

Dr. Flint's Heart Remedy banishes sick-headache, and will prevent the return of this most terrible of pains, if taken when the warning symptoms give notice of the recurrence of an attack. At druggists, $1.50. Descriptive treatise with each bottle; or address J. J. Mack & Co., S. F.

New Domestic Lime.

The Los Angeles Storage, Commission and Lumber Company, San Pedro street, near Third, have the agency of the "Summit Lime Company," of Tehachepi, for the manufacture of lime. They guarantee it of the best quality, it being manufactured by the H. T. Holmes' Lime Company, of Santa Cruz, one of the oldest manufactories in the State, whose name alone is a guarantee of the quality of the lime manufactured by them

WHY WILL YOU SUFFER from Ague and Malaria when Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will cure you.—C. F. Heinzeman, agent, Los Angeles.

If the food is not properly digested it becomes corrupt and poisons the system it is intended to nourish. This is indigestion.

"My wife has suffered for many years with indigestion. After trying everything else recommended, she tried Simmons Liver Regulator. In three days after taking it according to directions she was in perfect health; she does not suffer at all and can eat anything she wants without any of her previous symptoms."

W. B. Sugers, Bainbridge, Ga.

Heroes and Heroines.

There are few who endure bodily troubles without complaint. Did you ever meet among the heroes or heroines of your acquaintance—if any such there have been—one with a yellowish cast of countenance and that jaundiced aspect generally, which the most unpracticed eye recognizes as the product of a disordered liver, who did not complain, and peevishly too, of the soreness of the recalcitrant organ, of pains beneath the right shoulder blade, of dyspeptic symptoms, constipation and headache? Of course you never did and of course the individual was NOT using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, or he would not so have looked—so have complained. To purify the blood when contaminated with bile, and conduct the secretion into its proper channel, to re-establish regularity of the bowels, banish bilious headache and remove impediments to complete digestion, nothing can approach in efficacy this peerless alterative and tonic. Malarial complaints, always involving the liver and kidney and bladder inactivity, are remedied by it. It is a capital appetizer.

Valuable and Convenient.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are widely known as an admirable remedy for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Coughs and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs. They contain no hurtful ingredients, but may at all times be used with safety. Sold only in boxes. Price 25 cents.

The Latest and Greatest Discovery.

Dr. J De Pratt's Hamburgh Figs.—A crystalized fruit cathartic. A discovery of the greatest interest to the medical profession. A boon to every household. A most delicious laxative or purgative, prepared from fruits and vegetables. So perfectly harmless that they may be administered with entire safety to an infant. So efficacious to adults that a single dose will prove their value, and so elegant a preparation that it needs only to be presented to the public to become a necessity in every household throughout the land. For liver complaints, habitual constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and piles, they are a specific. To travelers by sea and land they will be found invaluable: they are positively unfailing in their action, and this is the only medicine ever offered to the public that is acceptable to the taste, and so pleasant that children will eat the figs as eagerly as candy. For sale by every druggist throughout the world. Price 25 cents a box. J. J. Mack & Co., Prop's, 9 and 11 Front street, San Francisco, Cal.

HAMBURG FIGS.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure for the reason that no one likes to take the medicine that is usually prescribed. Hamburg Figs were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found effective as well as pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents.

DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY.

DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY banishes from those afflicted with heart disease all fear, either of sudden death, or the development of those terrible brain diseases which result in insanity. It is one of the best remedies known for headache, which is often dependent upon disease of the heart, sometimes upon nervous disease, and sometimes upon derangement of the circulation, $1.50. Descriptive treatise with each bottle, or mailed free.

These Remedies are for sale by all Druggists.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN and for the county of Los Angeles.—Sarah E. Latham, plaintiff, vs. John W. Latham, defendant. Action brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and the complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court. The People of the State of California send greeting to John W. Latham, defendant: You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff, in the Superior Court in the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain the judgment of the court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties herein and awarding the custody of the minor child of said issue to the plaintiff. Reference is had to complaint for particulars. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, this 11th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

FOR SALE,

FOR

A SHORT TIME ONLY

8200 ACRES OF THE RENOWNED RANCHO CANADA De Los ALISOS, consisting of flat, rolling and mesa lands. The soil is of an even, rich sandy loam, free from alkali and sand and suitable alike for the culture of fruit, vines and all cereals. It is watered by numerous springs and streams, which, like all California waters, come to the surface in different portions of the ranch, and which offer splendid opportunities for the storage of winter water at slight expense.

No section in Southern California offers a chance for a town site equal to this. It has two guaranteed stations upon the line of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. to San Dieo, which is already graded through the ranch at the center of the town site. The Southern Pacific has also laid out their line to San Diego along the lower end, on the old San Diego road. The town site is elevated above the surrounding valley some 800 feet, and presents a magnificent panorama of the Santa Ana and San Juan valleys, the ocean and the beautiful Santiago mountains, rising but a few miles away along the northern boundary. It is a spot most fitting for a colony, lying just ten miles from Santa Ana, fifteen miles from San Juan-by-the-Sea, eight miles from the Laguna and Arch-beach, and the same distance from Newport and ocean transportation. The mountain ranges in the rear shut off the hot desert winds coming down the Santa Ana canon, and deflects them towards the north and west. The elevation secures immunity from the fogs and frosts of the lower lying and adjacent valleys. It is well timbered with oak, sycamore, cottonwood, willow and elder trees. Water from wells can be obtained anywhere on the ranch at depths of from 8 to 40 feet. At the old adobe ranch house is a vineyard over 80 years old, still bearing, and an orchard of fruit and olive trees, some of them two feet in diameter, grown and still in bearing without irrigation. Some distance from the ranch house lies the famous Sancal Grove and picnic grounds, which, with its magnificent trees, is the finest in Southern California. At one or two places on the ranch are indications of coal oil and lime. The celebrated actress, Madame Mojeska, whose summer house adjoins this property, pronounces its views and climate to be unsurpassed in all Southern California, and predicts for it a future like that of Pasadena.

For maps and photograps, prices and terms and opportunities to view the property, call on the owner, D. WHITING, jy10 1m No. 9, Baker Block.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

LOS ANGELES COUNTY, STATE OF California.—Joseph Banning, plaintiff vs. Hancock Banning, Mary H Banning, Mary H. Banning, Jr., a minor, and Lucy T Banning, a minor, John Doe, Richard Roe and Peter Stiles, defendants.—No. 5055.

Whereas, By a decree of the superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, made and given on the second day of June, 1887, in the above entitled action, the undersigned was appointed sole referee and by said decree directed to sell all of the real property hereinafter described at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in gold coin of the United States, and subject to confirmation by said Superior Court.

Now, therefore in pursuance of said decree, notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the 23d day of July, 1887, at 1 o'clock P. M. of said day, in front of the north door of the Court House, in the City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of California, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in gold coin of the United States, all the right, title and interest of the parties to the above entitled action, in and to the following described land, viz.: All that certain tract of land in Los Angeles county, State of California, near the town of Wilmington, in said county, bounded as follows: Commencing at a fence-post marked "M" at fence corner in N line of that certain tract of land known as Drum Barracks; thence along fence on west side of county road, N 3¼ deg. W, sixty-nine and 02 100 (69.02) chains to a post marked "P" at fence corner; thence along fence S 86¼ degs. W, twenty-four and 78-100 (24.78) chains to a post marked "Y 5;" thence leaving fence S 3¼ degs E sixty-nine and 02 100 (69 02) chains; thence N 86¼ degs. E twenty-four and 78-100 (24-78) chains to the place of beginning, containing one hundred and seventy-one and 3-100 (171.03-100) acres, said tract being lots seven (7), and eight (8) as shown on the partition map of the said Wilmington tract recorded in the office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County, in book No. 6, of deeds, page 66, to which said map reference is hereby made; also those certain tracts of land generally known as the eighty foot and three hundred foot strips bounded as follows:

Beginning at a fence post at fence corner on the N line of Union street marked "H"; thence along fence on W line of Drum Barrack N 3¼ deg. W, twenty one, and 67-100 (21 67) chains to a fence post marked "Z"; thence S 86¼ deg. W, five and 76-100 (5 76) chains to a post marked "Y 6", in orchard; thence S 3¼ deg. E, twenty-one and 66-100 (21 66) chains to a post marked "H 2" in fence on N line of said Union street; thence along said Union street N 86¼ deg. E, five and 76-100 (5 76) chains to the place of beginning, containing twelve and 47-100 (12.47) acres, being the same lands described in the complaint in this action, and being more particularly shown on the map of said premises, attached and made a part of said decree.

That the same will be sold in one parcel as above designated.

A. N. HAMILTON, Sole referee in said cause.

Dated Los Angeles, June 28, 1887.

The above sale has been postponed until SATURDAY, JULY 30th, at one P. M. By order of Court. je29 32t

DAILY HERALD.

A SCARED EDITOR,

Whose Fears Judge Hornblower Evidently Thinks Groundless.

Editor Janes, of the City Front Gazette, was the complaining witness in the case of Edward Anderson, charged with threats against life, which came up in Police Court 1 yesterday. He testified that the other day he was passing along Washington street, near East, when Anderson stopped him and introduced himself as a patrolman of the Coast Seamen's Union. The editor said he was pleased to make his acquaintance, and anticipating a new subscriber for his publication extended a friendly hand toward the sailor. It was not grasped, however, to his great surprise, and Anderson, in an angry tone, said: "You have been writing about me in your paper. I want you to know that I am a Socialist, and that I will kill you. I'll drive you off the front if you don't make a retraction of that item." The endangered editor stammered that he was not aware of ever having mentioned the patrolman's name in his sheet, and so told him. Anderson replied that he knew no names had been published, but he objected as a member of the Coast Seamen's Union to the article headed "Sailors' Wages," and which, he said, showed too much favoritism toward the shipmasters. But the question was not discussed, for at this juncture a captain came up and the newspaper man retreated to procure a warrant for Anderson's arrest.

The accused told a different story. He laughed at the idea that he contemplated killing anybody, and said that the editor had threatened to kill him.

After Janes had stated that he had 500 well-known ship-owners on his subscription list, and after he had given the Judge and prosecuting attorney a sample copy of the paper, the case was dismissed.—[S. F. Report.

La Canada and Crescenta.

Southern Pacific surveyors have been in this neighborhood for some time past, surveying a line from a point northwest of here through this valley on to the Devil's Gate, near Pasadena. No information could be gleaned, but it is supposed that some action has been taken to drive a road from San Fernando to Pasadena, by way of our valley.

While two gentlemen were visiting at the home of Mr. N. W. Stone, in Crescenta, their buggy, which had been left at the gate, caught fire, evidently from the ashes of a cigar. The flames were soon extinguished, but not before considerable damage had been done to the wagon box, overcoats, etc. We would like to mention the names of the parties concerned, but they entreated us on bended knee to keep the matter quiet; therefore we have not the heart to do it.

The people of this valley desire a more speedy mode of travel, and the advisability of continuing the dummy road which will be completed as far Glendale soon, is being talked of considerably.

While some of the places here have been under cultivation for a good many years, there are a great number of new homes started recently. Among these may be mentioned those of Prof. White, N. W. Stone and A. S. Gurnee. The farm of Mr. Stone contains a cemented reservoir, which will hold 19,000 gallons of water.

Mr. A. W. Williams has been suffering from a severe pain in his ear, and was compelled to go to Los Angeles to have an operation performed, which relieved the pain somewhat.

Mr. Demery, the Crescenta florist, has a large stock on hand, and can furnish plants and trees of any description. Among them were two which we thought of particular interest—Prysicenthur, the blossom of which will kill all insect life that comes in contact with it. The other, Maiden Hair Tree, which grow to the height of one hundred feet.

The view from Dr. Briggs' residence in this valley at the base of the mountains will eclipse anything of the kind in Southern California. Several miles of the sea coast can be plainly seen, with the white-winged crafts gliding over the smooth Pacific, and the land intervening and part of San Bernardino county loom up in magnificent grandeur.—[Glendale Encinal.

Mark Twain, in a sermon to anti-tobaccoites, says: "I don't want any of your statistics. I took your whole batch and lit my pipe with it. I hate your kind of people. You never try to find out how much solid comfort, relaxation and enjoyment a man derives from smoking in the course of a lifetime (which is worth ten times the money he would save by letting it alone); or the appalling aggregate of happiness lost in a lifetime by your kind of people from not smoking."

BOSTON HEIGHTS!

GREAT DONATION LOT SALE JULY 11th.

BOSTON HEIGHTS!

THIS DELIGHFUL SUBURB, LYING ON THE EASTERLY SIDE OF SOTO STREET AND extending from Brooklyn avenue northerly to the Mission road, and from Soto street to the city limits, comprises some of the most attractive locations for residence purposes to be found in the city of Los Angeles. The land has all been hitherto held in large tracts, offering no inducements to homeseekers and no opportunities for the small capitalist.

The first note of change is now sounded. The undersigned have made a subdivision of lands at

BOSTON HEIGHTS

Recently owned by Lacy, Johnston and Tononi; mostly planted in bearing vines, in close proximity to the East Los Angeles Park of fifty acres, and commanding a most picturesque and extensive view of the surrounding country. We will offer

299 Lots, Averaging 50x150

In size, at figures which will be found ridiculously low when compared with prices obtained for city lots at the same distance from the center in other directions, or for lots in new townsites 15 miles away. The new

"Los Angeles East-Side Water Company,"

With its capital of half a million dollars, is preparing to supply the whole of this section of the city with the PUREST WATER and in abundant quantity.

In addition to the proposed street car line along Broklyn avenue, a

CABLE ROAD,

A part of the extensive city system, of which Hon. J. F. Crank is President, will be carried along Soto street, passing directly in front of these lots.

These advantages will shortly cause a large increase in the value of the lots in this tract. NOW is the time to secure them. We will send carriages over to give an opportunity for inspection, and we think no unprejudiced person can visit the ground without desiring to buy a lot.

We do not offer to give away any cheap houses to stimulate the sale, but we want to close this property out quickly and have put the prices down very low, making the terms one third cash and balance in six and twelve months, with interest at six per cent. Sales under four hundred dollars, half cash.

As soon as the 299 lots are all subscribed for, and the first payment made, we will donate

$5000 IN U. S. GOLD COIN Among the Lot Buyers, as Follows:

ONE SUM OF $2500 GOLD COIN.
ONE SUM OF $1500 GOLD COIN.
ONE SUM OF $1000 GOLD COIN.

Making a total sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, payable immediately to three of the respective buyers of lots, whose names shall be drawn under the supervision of the purchasers.

NOW READY FOR SALE.

Raymond Improvement Company Tract!!

—SOUTH OF AND ADJOINING THE GROUNDS OF—

RAYMOND HOTEL, SOUTH PASADENA.

—AND FORMERLY KNOWN AS THE UPPER MARENGO TRACT.—

The RAYMOND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, having purchased 347 acres of the well-known, highly-improved and cultivated tract, now offers for sale its DIVISION NO 1, with long frontages on FAIR OAKS AVENUE and MISSION STREET, large lots averaging 60x180 feet; streets from 50 to 80 feet wide, and to be graded, piped and planted in trees at the expense of the company. Each lot to have connection laid to main pipes, and to have FREE one share of stock in the MARENGO WATER COMPANY, thus insuring an abundant supply of pure water for irrigation and domestic use.

Easy and frequent communication now had with Los Angeles by the L. A. & S. G. V. R. R., with station at northwest corner of tract. The new line of the Southern Pacific Co. from the new town of Ramona northward, is to run through the middle of the tract, and a first-class station is to be established at the reservoir in front of the Raymond Hotel.

GARFIELD AVENUE, running from Alhambra Station on the S. P. R. R. to Raymond Station on the L. A. & S. G. V. R. R., is 70 feet wide through the east side of this tract and will soon have a line of street cars in operation its entire length.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN and for the county of Los Angeles.

James A. Harrison and Hannah E. Harrison, plaintiffs, vs. Laura Mattocks and John Doe Mattocks, defendants.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and the Complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court.

The People of the State of California send greeting to Laura Mattocks and John Doe Mattocks, defendants. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiffs, in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said Complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain the judgment of this Court against the said defendants in the sum of $15,000 as damages, alleged to have been sustained through the criminal negligence, default and carelessness of the defendants herein; and for costs of suit. Reference is had to Complaint for particulars.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said Complaint as above required, the said plaintiffs will cause your default to be entered and will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the Complaint.

[L. S.] Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, this 19th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven. CHAS. H. DUNSMOOR, Clerk.

A MUSIC BOX IN HER BUSTLE.

Why a Pretty Girl on the Mexican Border Became Confused.

[El Paso True Republican.]

Said a custom house inspector the other day. Very few people think it is wrong to smuggle, and if they can manage to slip a few little trinkets over the line unobserved they have no hesitancy in doing so. About a week ago there was a little excursion party in El Paso del Norte, Mexico, and I kept a pretty sharp lookout. But one of the ladies I would have passed almost with my eyes shut, she was such a pretty girl and had such an innocent babyish face.

I had just asked her if she had any dutiable articles, and she had just said, "Oh, no, sir," when I heard a peculiar muffled and whirring sound, and then something tinkling out the old tune, "My Dream of Love is O'er." It seemed to come from under her skirts, and then I remembered hearing of a clock striking once in a woman's bustle, and tumbled to the situation.

You see that innocent little thing had bought a tiny music box in a case covered filagree work, and somebody had suggested that she hide it under her clothes. I can't say just exactly how she attached it to her, but I know that she accidentally touched some spring or something and set the whole thing going. It kept right on playing that tune until she got it out, and then began to reel off "The Blue Alsatian Mountains." I thought the woman would faint, and I heard her remark to a friend that she would as soon think of packing around a clock-work infernal machine as to try the dodge on again.

Staking His Claim.

[Chicago Herald.]

A slim young man was perched on a stool in one of the large restaurants near the Tribune building devouring a strawberry dumpling. The capacity of the resturant was not sufficient for the rush of customers, and behind the fortunate possessors of stools formed another line of hungry candidates glaring over the shoulders of the eaters and watching each mouthful disappear. Behind the slim young man, however, four hungry eyes watched the vanishing fragments of the strawberry dumpling. There were two contestants for one seat—a corpulent old parson in spectacles and a tall man with a silk hat.

The slim young man, completing his lunch, climbed down from his perch, and the corpulent watcher, with great activity, began to climb up.

"Hold on," said the other candidate gruffly.

"What for?"

"Because, sir, I have a right to that seat. I was here, sir, when that young man began to eat his dumpling. Perhaps," added the tall man, scornfully, "you think that I have been standing here just to count how many mouthfuls there are in a strawberry dumpling."

The elderly man laid his hand on the stool and said with the confident air of one who holds four aces: "I am very sorry, sir, bnt you really have no claim at all. I was here when this young man was unable to decide whether he wanted strawberry dumpling or custard pie."

And then the corpulent old man, having "seen" the tall man and gone him one better, climbed upon the stool, and his rival moved sadly along to stake out another claim on a man who had just ordered fish balls with tomato sauce.

National Soldiers' Home.

The Los Angeles Board of Trade is proving its superior alertness by trying to get the National Soldiers' Home, for which Congress made an appropriation, located near that city. Los Angeles has enlisted the support of General Miles, who now has his headquarters there, and of some of the other army officers, but the choice of a site will be made by a board of officers who will come out from Washington for that purpose during the month of September. Other towns have as good a chance to secure the Home as Los Angeles has, if they are ready to offer equal inducements. Six hundred acres of good land will be needed for the Home, and it must be convenient to a railroad. There has been talk in Los Angeles about making the Government a present of the whole six hundred acres which will be needed, from which it will be seen that the people down there mean business. It would be quite like their enterprise to do this, and the parties making the gift would probably be smart enough to turn it to a business advantage, by making the location of the Home the occasion for laying off a new town site and selling several hundred lots at prices which would reimburse them for their apparent generosity. This could be done very easily, as a National Soldiers' Home on this coast will be a large and important establishment. A good many thousand veterans have come to California since the war, and more will come, the climate here being a great attraction to them, and in process of time the Home will come to be inhabited by fifteen hundred or two thousand persons, which would be a first-class nucleus for a town. The extensive grounds around the Home would, according to custom, be laid out in gardens and lawns, making a beautiful resort for visitors and would increase the attractions of the neighborhood as a place for rural homes. PORT BALLONA.

The Future Harbor of Southern California

THIS IS THE OCEAN TERMINUS OF THE CALIFORNIA CENTRAL RAILROAD, OF THE Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe system, who are under contract to lay five miles of side track. The shortest railroad line between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

PORT BALLONA is situated on Santa Monica Bay, only thirty minutes' ride by rail from the City of Los Angeles, with trains to begin running every 3 hours in the day early in July. Property can be purchased now at a much lower figure than when railroad and steamships are brought together. PORT BALLONA has two main avenues, one 100 feet and one 80 feet wide, with all other streets 60 feet. Residence lots are 40x150, and business lots 25x100 and 25x150 feet. The residence property is at an elevation of from 50 to 75 feet above tide water thus affording a most magnificent view, extending from Point Duma to the San Jacinto Mountains, and from the San Bernardino Mountains to Santa Catalina Island, in the blue Pacific, and with a Beach unsurpassed on the Coast.

The Beautiful Lake of Ballona

Is one of the greatest features of the place, affording at all times a perfectly safe and pleasant place for Sailing and Boating of all kinds, and teeming with Fish and Water Fowl. There is also a never-failing Spring of Pure Sulphur Water, and both sulphur and salt water bath-houses are already in course of construction.

☞ Water will be delivered in iron pipes in front of each lot under good pressure.

☞ Lots are now on sale, and maps and all other information can be obtained from

Vernon Park! Vernon Park!

This Beautiful Property, lying ONE MILE SOUTH OF LOS ANGELES, will be placed on the market

THURSDAY, JULY 14TH

It has been subdivided into One-Quarter Acre Lots, which will be sold on VERY EASY TERMS.

These lots are covered with old, bearing Fruit Trees and Vines, the whole tract being surrounded with Eucalyptus Trees, nearly 100 feet high.

THE LOCATION IS SUPERB.

Close to the Vernon School House. The new Street Car line will pass these lots. The Railroad to Ballona Harbor is within one-quarter of a mile, where a depot will be located. The Railroad to Santa Ana and San Pedro is within one-half mile, giving from eight to ten trains a day to Los Angeles.

Only thirty feet to Cold, Clear Water. The City Zanja runs through the tract, which supplies water for irrigation.

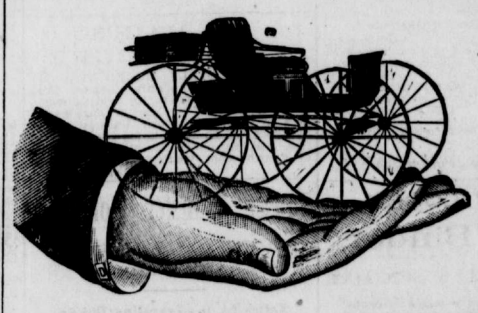

The fruit on this tract is as fine as any in the County. Its close proximity to the City makes it the most desirable place for Suburban Homes yet placed on the market.

Price of lots, $400 and $500. Terms of payment, $50 cash, balance in monthly payments if desired. WITHOUT INTEREST.

Carriages leave every day at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m., from

SOME REMARKABLE JEWELS.

Stones That Have Heretofore Glorified Kings.

Diamonds are supposed to be chiefly interesting as a means of personal adornment, and most of them have no higher destiny than to advertise an ingenious actress or to cast an ephemeral glamour over some scene of social festivity. Many of them have the honor to be endeared to the hearts of their possessors, and occasion at the hour of parting a grief none the less poignant because they do not share it. The hand of death is not more terrible than the hand of the "uncle" or creditor, grasping with untimely claim these treasures that frequently involve one's social position. The belle who has sown the earth broadcast with suitors to her own heart confesses, though she would scorn the allegation from another source, that she owes much to her brilliant allies. The "masher" on the avenue, with more candor and less personal pride, openly builds his hopes on his diamond-pin, and the ball-room swell, as he turns the blinding radiance of his solitaire upon the helpless ranks of femininity, is proudly, superciliously conscious of mental salaam on all sides.

While these meaner stones are shaping individual destinies, there are others that have reflected glory upon empires, survived the fall of dynasties and come down to modern times as rich in reminiscence as they are in luster. A knowledge of the most famous diamonds and the chief points of interest in their history became accessible through the collections made by the Emperor Napoleon III, which consisted in a series of models in rock crystal, in which the shape, cutting and precise shade of color of each stone were faithfully copied.

The largest diamond of the French collection is the Regent, which was added to the French treasure in 1817. It is now in the collection of the Louvre, and its proportions and brilliancy are considered matchless. It was found in the mine of Parteal, south of Golconda, and weighed in the rough state 410 carats. It was bought in 1702 by Mr. Pitt, the Governor of Madras and grandfather of the first Earl of Chatham, for about £20,000. At a cost of £3000 it was cut in London as a brilliant of 136½ carats, and was sold a little later to the regent Duke of Orleans for Louis XV. The price was £130,000—about half the estimated value. At the coronation of Louis XV this crown was surmounted with a fleur-de lis, the central point of which was the Sancy; in the middle of the band of the crown was the Regent and near it the Mirror of Portugal and other Mazarian gems. From that time the Regent became identified with the fortunes of France. It has passed through many revolutions, and, very literally through many hands, for in the days that followed the fall of Louis XVI the Regent carefully chained and guarded by gendarmes, was exhibited to the people of Paris, and any half-starved workman might hold this symbol of royal splendor and epitome of 6,000,000 francs for a few moments in his brown hand. The Regent, stolen by robbers in 1792 and its hiding-place revealed at the gate of death by one of the reckless band, was pawned to the Batavian government by Napoleon I., and after having been mounted in the state sword of Bonaparte, finally glittered in the Imperial diadem through the palmy days of Napoleon III.

The Florentine, or Grand Duke of Tuscany, is the finest diamond owned by Austria. It weighs 139½ carats. It is a little yellow, and is cut to represent a star of nine rays. Like the Sancy, it belonged to Charles the Bold, and was sold by a Genoese merchant to Ludovic Sforza, Duke of Milan. It afterward became the property of Pope Julius II., who presented it to the Emperor of Austria. The history of the Sancy diamond is one of many viscissitudes. It originally ornamented the helmet of Charles the Bold, who lost it in the battle of Gransom (1477). It was found by a Swiss soldier, who sold it to a priest for 2 francs; it disappeared then for some time until, in the year 1589, King Anthony of Portugal pledged it to Nicholade Harlay, Seigneur of Sancy, the treasurer of King Henry IV of France, who retained it by paying 100,000 livres. After being pawned once or twice it was sold to James I. of England in 1604, and his successor wore it when he mounted the throne. Henrietta of France afterward ran away with it and, pressed for want of funds, sold it along with another, called the Mirror of Portugal, in 1655. Mazarin got possession of the two, and they were worn by the King of France until the theft of 1792. After various wanderings the Sancy fell into the hands of Charles IV, the king of Spain and Joseph Bonaparte found in the crown coffer when he took possession of the throne. He sold it to raise money, and it then passed to the Demidoff family. It was exposed for sale at an exhibition at Paris some years ago, but remained unsold, and is now in India.

The Star of the South is an extraordinary stone. It was found in 1853, in the mines of Boganan, Brazil, by a poor negress. It weighed 257½ carats in the roogh and was cut at Amsterdam by Coster. It is of an irreproachable purity, transparent, and takes by refraction a lovely rose tint. Another singular stone is the blue diamond, supposed to be one of those stolen from the crown jewels of France in 1792. It was probably recut before it was purchased by Mr. A. J. Beresford Hope for £18,000, losing 23 carats in the process, and now only weighs 44⅛ carats. Its tint is of the finest sapphire, and its luster of the utmost brilliancy. Among the smaller diamonds belonging to the crown jewels of different countries are the Shaw and the Pasha of Egypt. The former once belonged to the ancient monarchs of Persia and was presented to the Czar by the Persian Prince Chosroes, son of Abbas Mirza. It is of the finest water, and weighs ninety-five carats. The latter, which weighs forty carats and cost £28,000, is in the possession of the Khedive. Perhaps the best known of these famous diamonds is the Koh-i-noor. Its early history is obscure, but it is believed to be the gem described by Tavernier among the jewels of Aurengzebe. According to the Hindu legend, it was worn by one of the heroes of the Indian epic poem, the Mahabharata, and it would therefore have a history extending backward about 4000 years. In the year 55 B. C. it was in the possession of Vikramapitya, Rajah Ujayim from whom it passed to his successors, and latterly to the sultans of Delhi. After the occupation of Delhi in 1739 the jewel became the property of Nadir-Shah, the Persian invader, who bestowed upon it the name of Koh-i-noor. The gem passed successively to the Abdali dynasty of Kabul, and in 1813 to Runjet. It remained in the Lahore treasury until the suppression of Dhulip Sing and the annexation of the Punjaub by the British government in 1849, when the civil authorities confiscated all the property of state from the East India company in part payment of the expenses of the war. The gem was taken in charge by Lord Dalhousie, and sent by him to England in custody of two officers to be presented to the queen. The Koh-i-noor weighed then 186 1-16 carats. It was exhibited in this state at the great exhibition of 1851, and was valued at £140,000. To remove several flaws it was decided to have it recut in the form of a perfect brilliant, its weight being reduced to 122¾ carats, but its brilliancy and effect much improved.

The Orloff, which suggested Wilkie Collin's novel, The Moonstone, originally formed one of the eyes of the famous idol in the temple of Brahma at Serringapatam. This diamond was stolen by a French soldier and carried to Madras, where it was sold to a captain of the English navy for £2,000. Conveyed to England it was bought by a Jew for £12,000, who some time after sold it to Catherine II, of Russia, for £90,000 and a pension of life of £4,000. The Pole Star, cut as a brilliant, and weighing forty carats, is in Russia and belongs to the Princess Youssoupoff. The Nassak, one of the prizes of the Maharatta war, was purchased of the East India Company by the Marquis of Westminster, who had it cut into triangular shape with curved facettes. It weighs 78⅝ carats, and is estimated at about £30,000.

The Great Mogul, like the Koh-i-noor, once belonged to the nadir shah, the Persian invader of India. Its weight originally was 780½ carats, but the cutting reduced it to less than 280 carats. It is of a soft, rosy tint, and some lapidaries have declared it to be a white sapphire.

Another Life Saved.

About two years ago a prominent citizen of Chicago was told by his physicians that he must die. They said his system was so debilitated that there was nothing left to build on. He made up his mind to try a "new departure." He got some of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and took it according to directions He began to improve at once. He kept up the treatment for some months, and is to-day a well man. He says the "Discovery" saved his life.

We ought not to be too anxious to encourage untried innovation, in cases of doubtful improvement. For a quarter of a century Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been before the public and passed through the severest test, and is pronounced the most reliable remedy for that disagreeable malady. Thousands of testimonials of its virtues. Fifty cents per bottle, by druggists.

TAKE
SIMMONS
LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.

This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.

No loss of time, no interruption or stoppage of business while taking the Regulator.

Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.

If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system. YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING.

General Howard's Address on the Life and Character of Grant.

Sunday's meeting was by no means the least in importance of this assembly. No true manhood or womanhood can be attained to without understanding the true relations we bear to each other, both in the home and in the community. The want of courtesy is often noticed among young people, in assemblies, on the streets, in the cars, as well as in the deportment in the home towards parents and superiors. This, perhaps, is nowhere so noticeable as in the case of young people not yielding their seats to elderly people in the street cars.

The meeting was addressed by Rev. J. S. Fleming, Superintendent of Instruction. Dr. Ostrander and others.

The devotional meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held at 5 o'clock P. M. This meeting was intensely interesting, but space will not admit of a report.

The mass meeting at 7:30 o'clock was presided over by Gen. O. O. Howard. Rev. Mr. Cole from Arizona was introduced by the president. General Howard remarked that this was a warmer climate and one would expect something interesting. Mr. Cole asked, as he was introduced, "what is this age characterized for, what will it be characterized for in the ages to come?"

He answered, as a "Missionary Age." He then showed in a very impressive manner the importance of this great organization. He represented it as supplementary to the churches. The young man far from home, exposed to all the temptations of life in our great cities, finds in the reading rooms of these associations, with the warm hearth welcome he meets just what he needs. He has no home. The speaker related a very touching incident of a young man in Boston falling into the hands of sharpers, loosing all he had and falling into dissipated habits. He was induced, against his first impulses, to go back to his father's house.

The speaker thought these associations did a great work in developing young men in Christian work. It developed the intellect as well. He said these associations did not conflict with the interest of the churches, though some pastors seemed to fear that strength would be drawn from the churches.

A verse was sung, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and Mr. Mead, Secretary of the Los Angeles Association, was introduced. He asked, "What is the Y. M. C. A?" Many make a mistake on this point. Some think it it a gymnasium. Some think it a social club. Some think it a perpetual prayer meeting. It was all these, but not these in its great design. It was to bring young men to Christ.

It was started forty-five years ago by one young man. Now there are thousands all over the world. One has been recently organized in Nazareth, the home of Him in whose name the Y. M. C. A. work.

He said we must work together. It took some sixteen men to make a pin. They all had not only their special work, but their time in which to do it. It took a good many to manage a ship. Did they not work in concert, the ship would never be launched.

He described the different committees; a committee for getting employment for the needy; a committee to visit the sick, to find out the religions and church proclivities of young men, with an eye to advising them to join some branch of the Christian church. As Mr. Mead closed, Gen. Howard asked Dr. Ostrander what was the most restful hymn, as the congregation was large and it was warm. "All the way my Savior leads me" was selected.

Gen. Howard said he and other laymen had the privilege of preaching to ministers and a bishop not long ago. He then introduced E. S. Field of Los Angeles, to talk as a practicable business man. Mr. Field said we are all trying to be practical. The tendency of the churches was to get outside the business center of our cities. We get down in the very places the churches leave. He thought this practical. Here is where the splendid saloon with plated glass and all the attractions that wealth and the skill of art could devise to draw in the unwary youth away from the divine influences of home.

This led him to show the importance of giving money toward building the block for the Y. M. C. A. in Los Angeles. He said if any great business enterprise was brought before Los Angeles, involving $100,000 it would not take a week to raise it. (General Howard said three hours.)

Mr. Field said we are building boards of trades, we are building railroads and bridges and other enterprises; should we not wake up in the interest of young men.

GEN. HOWARD'S ADDRESS.

The following is a synopsis of Gen. O. O. Howard's address on Gen. U. S. Grant:

As it is of use to young mariners to study the charts of the sea and note the labors of successful voyagers, so it is of first importance to enterprising youth to examine well the maps of human life, and carefully note the character, work and conduct of successful men. First, the skill beyond price must be sought, but that skill which makes the very heavens and earth contribute to safety, to fame, to greatness, to success; and second, it is necessary to search the craggy banks, the rocks and shoals of human souls that they may be known in order to be shunned. General Grant, whose work on earth is done, furnishes such a map of life.

After reviewing General Grant's life the speaker said.

The first time I met General Grant was the 21st of October, 1863. The Eleventh corps was then at Bridgeport, Ala., and my headquarters were in tents near the bridge over the Tennessee river. Early that morning, taking a return supply train, I went up to Stevenson, ten miles distant, to pay an official visit to General Hooker. While there Hooker said that our new military division commander, General Grant was en route from Nashville te Chattanoga, and that he was expected on the incoming train. Hooker had made preparations to receive the general, and to have him conducted to his own quarters. Grant was very lame, and suffering from injuries occasioned by the falling of his horse a short time before in the streets of New Orleans. Hooker sent a spring wagon and an officer of his staff to the depot, but for some reason he did not go himself. As I was to take the same train southward bound to get back to Bridgeport before dark, its arrival found me there at the station in waiting. I had presumed that General Grant would stay over night with General Hooker, but this presumption was not correct. Several acquaintances among the officers on the train met me as I stepped into the forward car. General Grant was pointed out to me and I passed on at once, as was proper, to pay my respects to him. Imagine my surprise when I saw him. He had been for fome time before the public, the successful commander in important battles; the papers had said much of him, and several virulent sheets much against him, and so, judging from accounts, I had conceived him to be of large size and rough appearance. The actual man was quite different, not larger than McClellan, at the time rather thin in flesh and very pale in complexion, and noticeably self-constrained and retiring. Without rising he extended his hand as I presented mine, smiled pleasantly, and signified very briefly that it gave him pleasure to meet me. He then permitted me to continue the conversa ion. General Hooker's staff officer came with the tender of a conveyance and the offer of hospitality. The quick reply made with quiet firmness at the time astonished me.

"If General Hooker wishes to see me, he will find me on this train." I hardly need say that Hooker very soon presented himself and offered his courtesies in person to his new commander.

Hooker was tall, of full build, ruddy, handsome, then in the prime of life. I wondered at the contrast between the two men and pondered upon the manner of their meeting. Grant evidently took the first occasion to assert himself. He never left the necessity for gaining a proper ascendancy over subordinate generals, where it was likely to be questioned, to a second interview. Yet he manifested only a quiet firmness.

One who knew General Grant intimately says: "He was always in the same manner, never elated by victory or cast down by defeat. He met all sorts of fortune stolidly. His confidence in himself never failed." This may be true, but I think not. I once heard Mrs. Grant say: "People seem to think Mr. Grant can bear any amount of strain, but it is not so. His system is sensitive and he suffers much with dreadful headaches." It is not want of feeling or sympathy, not stolidity, that enabled Grant always to preserve his cheerful, hopeful demeanor. He had confidence in himself, it is true, but it was because he knew of a power beyond self because he was helped and strengthened by that real power beyond self. You may call it spirit Providence, or God. The name is not material. One friend declares, "He had great faith in luck." His knowledge of man, amounting to insight, did not come from lucky wits. Plans like that at Vicksburg were not attributable to lucky ventures. No, they came from a solid brain, warmed and brightened by a true heart, all of which were helped to enlightenment by the truest adjuster of human events, the king of kings. So I have long believed and so General Grant himself believed.

At the close of the lecture a vote of thanks was tendered General Howard and his many army comrades crowded about him to grasp his one remaining hand.

Owing to the lateness of the hour Rev. J. M. Harvey postponed his lecture on "The Preacher in His Parish."

The Rozelle Case.

When the case of Mrs. Grettie Rozelle was called in Judge Cheney's court yesterday morning, counsel for defendant asked for a continuance on the strength of an affidavit in which she set forth that she had not resided very long in the State, and that she had spent the greater portion of her life in the Eastern and Middle States, particularly in the State of New York. She states that in the States named there can be found people who have known her since childhood, and she can prove from their evidence that her character for honesty, integrity, truth and veracity, chastity, virtue, morality and peace and quiet is good. Her attorney stated that on Saturday a telegram had been received stating that such evidence could be procured, and he desired time to bring it here.

The Court decided that the affidavit was not of sufficient strength to warrant a continuance and set the case for Thursday morning.

No Reduction.

The committee of the G. A. R., appointed to confer with Mr. Goodman, of the Southern Pacific Railroad, in relation to the rates of fare to St. Louis at the time of the national encampment, report that they were not successful in obtaining a reduction. Last year when the encampment was held in San Francisco the rate was reduced to $50, for the round trip from Eastern points, but this year $67.50 will be asked for second class fare from California points to St. Louis and $2.50 will be added for the mattresses. Mr. Goodman said he could do nothing in regard to lowering the fares for the G. A. R.

The G. A. R.

A meeting of the sub-committee of the general committee of the G. A. R. to arrange for sending an exhibit of Southern California products to St. Louis during the national encampment, was held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms, E. Germain in the chair. On motion of Mr. Rice it was decided to request the finance committee of the G. A. R. to pay the expenses of seven men east and return, for the purpose of taking charge of the exhibit. A resolution was offered by T. A. Garey asking that the local posts guarantee $1000 to the Pomological society in aid of the annual exhibit in September on condition that the society shall donate one-half of the net proceeds to the G. A. R. in aid of the display at St. Louis. This was adopted and the committee adjourned.

OGLESBY.

He Will be Taken to Texas by Shad White.

Yesterday Sheriff Kays received a teleeram from Governor Bartlett stating that Captain Oglesby is to be turned over to Shad White, the Texas deputy who came out for him. The proper papers will arrive to-day and White will leave with his prisoner to-morrow. The massive deputy from Texas has made many friends during his stay in Los Angeles. He is put up as a good, honest, brave man.

THE CHINATOWN FIRE.

Protection Asked by the Chinese Consul General.

It has been surmised in police circles that the fire in Chinatown was the work of an incendiary, but thus far the perpetrators of the crime have not been captured. One of the Chinese merchants on the night of the conflagration said he saw two Mexicans set fire to the buildings, and he fired four shots at them without effect. Last evening Mayor Workman received the following dispatch, which he will answer this morning:

To the Mayor of Los Angeles:

This consulate is in receipt of telegrams setting forth that repeated attempts have been made by lawless persons to destroy by fire the property of resident Chinese in your city; that on the 23d their quarters were set on fire and owing to the immense loss of their property, they appeal to the consulate with the request that we earnestly call your attention to the matter in the hope that they and their property that is left will receive the full protection guaranteed by law and treaty and that every effort will be made to arrest the incendiaries.

SIANG TING TSAN,
Chinese Consul General.
F. A. BEE
Consul.

Immediately upon receipt of the dispatch Mayor Workman called at the police station and had a conference with Chief Skinner. The Chinese merchants have offered a reward of $500 and the city a like amount for the apprehension of the criminals. The Mayor ordered the Chief to detail a squad of officers to protect the Chinese interests, and also to place special officers on detail to apprehend the ruffians who fired the Chinese quarters.

It is altogether probable that the fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp in a Chinese gambling den, and it will be a long time before the city will have to pay any reward for the apprehension of the man who fired Chinatown.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

A Review of the Day's Transactions.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The new week opens with the market at the Stock Exchange showing no improvement over the past two weeks. The transactions are exceedingly light and the fluctuations, except where special pressure has been brought to bear, are extremely narrow. The tone of the dealings was moderately firm, until noon, when a decided weakness was developed in some stocks, while the general market was heavy, and some improvement was noticeable by 2 P. M., and slight gains were made in the last hour, but the close was only steady and very dull at insignificant fractions better than the lowest figures. Almost the entire active list is lower this evening and Pacific Mail is down 1¾ and Missouri Pacific 1¼, while New York, Susquehanna and Western is up 1 per cent.

Government bonds are dull and heavy.

Financial.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The stock market closed extremely dull and steady, about first prices. Four per cent. coupons, 127½; 4½ coupons, 108¾; Central Pacific, 37½; Denver & Rio Grande, 27¾; Louisville & Nashville, 62¼; Michigan Central, 85¼ Kansas & Texas, 27¾; New York Central, 109; Northern Pacific, 34½; Preferred, 60¾; North. western, 116¾; Oregon Improvement, 46; Oregon Navigation, 96; Transcontinental, 29⅜; Pacific Mail, 42½; Texas Pacific, 29; Union Pacific, 55¼; United States Express, 63; Wells, Fargo & Co., 28; Western Union, 75¾.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Money on call easy; 4½@6; Prime mercantile paper, 5½@6 per cent.

Sterling exchange, dull, steady; 4.82¾ for sixty day bills, and 4.84½ for demand.

Money—4 to 5.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Bar silver, 95¾.

BOSTON, July 25—Closing prices: Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe firsts seven, 122; Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, 111⅞; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, 143; Mexican Central, common, 15½; Mexican Central bond script,—; Mexican Central first mortgage bonds, 15⅝.

The Stock Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The following are the closing prices:

Best & Belcher	6.50	Peerless	1.05
Crocker	1.00	Potosi	6.50
Confidence	7.75	Ophir	8.00
Con. Cal. Va.	19.25	Savage	6.87½
Gould & C'ry.	4.90	Sierra Nevada	4.45
Hale Norcross	4.65	Union Con.	5.35
Peer.	.60	Y. Jacket	6.62½
Locomotive	.35

Silver bars—Per cent. discount, 26@27½.

The Grain Markets.

DOMESTIC.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Wheat—Higher buyer, '87, $2.07.

Barley—Very Slow.

Corn—California large yellow, $1.12½; small yellow, $1.17; white, $1.35.

CHICAGO, July 25—Wheat, weak and lower; Cash, 67¾c; August, 68⅝.

Corn—Firmer; cash, 37½; August 37½

Barley—Steady.

FOREIGN.

LIVERPOOL, July 25.—Wheat—Poor demand; No. 2 winter, 6s5½d, easy; spring, 6s 4½d, easy.

Corn—Poor demand; spot, 3s11¾d, easy, July, 3s 11½d, easy; August, 4s, easy.

Visible Grain Supply.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The visible supply of grain on July 23d, as computed by the New York Produce Exchange, was: Wheat, 32,000,000 bushels; corn, 7,800,000 bushels; and barley 128,000 bushels.

The British Grain Trade.

LONDON, July 25.—The Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade says: "The continued drought is rapidly maturing wheat, and part of the southern crop is already out. If the dry weather holds, the whole crop will be thrown on the market, and prices will decline to zero. On the other hand if rain sets in, the grain will have a chance of being converted into pig's feed. This will result in a spurt of trade, but there is wheat enough in the world to again bring the values below the present level. The English wheat growers stands irretrievably ruined, whether his wheat goe sto the straight market or to the rats. Trade is sick unto death. The sales of English wheat during the past week were 24,199 quarters at 34s 3d, against 272,295 quarters at 31s 3d during the corresponding week last year. The trade in foreign wheat is on the smallest possible scale, and values are in the buyers favor at Liverpool, where the prices are down 1d per cental. There were four arrivals of wheat cargoes and two sold. Four cargoes were withdrawn and three remain. At to-day's market there was no inquiry for wheat; flour was a fraction cheaper; oats were firm; corn, beans, peas and linseed were unchanged.

Petroleum.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Petroleum showed much more activity than it has for many months, opening firm at 57¾, but immediately became weak and declined to 55½ in first hour, but the decline was checked at this point and the large buying orders caused the market to move up and half the mornings loss was recovered. The closing was strong. Opening prices, 57¾; highest, 57¾; lowest, 55¼; closed, 52⅝. Sales, 2,500,000 barrels.

Break in Oil.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—Oil broke from 57⅝ to 55¼ this morning on heavy selling.

Pork.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Pork nominal; $11 bid for year.

DAILY HERALD.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Mayor Workman's Recommendation Adopted.

IMPROVEMENT OF STREETS.

Ordinance for the Election for School Bonds on August 25th, Adopted. M 2

The City Council met yesterday afternoon, President Breed in the Chair. Councilmen Goss, Stearns, Johnson, Gibbs, Lovell, Teed, Khurts, Willard, Collins, Perry and Hiller present.

After the reading and adoption of the minutes the following business was transacted:

OFFICERS' REPORTS.

The Auditor presented his trial balance for the month ending June 30th, and also the balance for the week ending July 23d. Referred to Finance Committee.

The Zanjero reported expenditures of $108 during the past week. Referred to Finance Committee.

The Superintendent of Streets reported expenditures of $522.75 during the past week. Referred to Finance Committee.

The Chief of Police reported the collection of $332.50, delinquent licenses for June. Referred to Finance Committee.

HEALTH AND SPRINKLING.

The Board of Health recommended that ordinance No. 99, prohibiting the carrying of swill through the public streets during certain hours be amended so as to read: "The carrying of swill or garbage through the public streets of Los Angeles except between the hours of 9 o'clock P. M. and 6 o'clock A. M. is hereby prohibited." The City Attorney was instructed to draw the ordinance and the report was adopted.

On petition of Mary H. Banning et al., recommended that petition be granted and the Superintendent of Streets be instructed to locate and erect hydrants. Adopted.

Recommended that the Superintendent of Streets be notified to erect a sprinkling hydrant at the northeast corner of the Catholic cemetery, also one on Buena Vista street near the bridge. Adopted.

Recommended that the Health officers abate the nuisance cited in petition of E. M. Hamilton. Adopted.

The following was presented by the Board of Health signed by all the members except Councilman Lovell. "Referring to the communications of the Board of Trade and Deputy Superintendent of Streets in reference to street sprinkling, your Board of Health beg leave to state that the street sprinkling is done under the supervision of the Board of Health. On the 7th day of March 1887, the city entered into a contract with D. F. Donegan to do the street sprinkling for the sum of $3.40 per cart for 10 hours work. The sprinkling was not done to the satisfaction of the Board of Health, in consequence of which an inspector was appointed whose duty it was to see that the work was done in a more efficient manner, since when better work has been done, but the Board of Health is aware that the service is not what it should be and have so informed the the contractor and inspector. One of the reasons assigned by the contractor for not doing better work is the lack of sufficient hydrants. The Board of Health have tried to remedy this by recommending that more hydrants be put in, but so far the City Water Company has refused to put in such hydrants although notified by the Council to do so. The Board of Health are anxious to have the streets sprinkled in a good and efficient manner and is doing all in its power to have the work so done. We think it poor policy and very little economy to reduce the number of springling carts, as has been done. In fact, more carts are absolutely necessary. Our citizens are complaining in every direction for the want of sprinkling. Nothing is more conducive to the health and well-being of our city than street sprinkling, and we favor the sprinkling, at least twice a day (morning and evening) of the principal streets and thoroughfares leading into the city, especially those streets which have been sprinkled heretofore. We, therefore, recommend that the Board of Health, under the authority given by the ordinances of the city, be instructed to increase the number of sprinkling carts to twenty-five if necessary, and that the Board of Health be authorized to have such streets sprinkled as it may deem necessary.

Mr. Lovell said he wanted to explain why he did not sign the report. He did not believe in any special legislation for certain streets, and if one street had been picked out to be sprinkled, then others also should be selected. Some of the streets, if sprinkled, will not ever be graded. He moved to strike out the portion referring to "such streets as had been sprinkled heretofore." Motion seconded by Nr. Stearns.

Mr. Goss hoped that the motion would not prevail for some of the streets were in such a condition that it was a public necessity that they should be sprinkled.

Mr. Breed explained that the ordinance and contract left the sprinkling in the hands of the Board of Health, which wanted the Council to agree with that authority, since there seemed to be a misunderstanding as to the power conferred.

Clerk Teed read the contract, and Mr. Lovell said that it seemed that the latter part of the report was unnecessary.

Mr. Kuhrts moved that the Board of Health be authorized to sprinkle all the principal streets leading into the city. Seconded by several.

Mr. Lovell said that in regard to South Main street it needed to be graded and now was the time to make the property owners do the work.

Mr. Collins thought that the matter should be left with the Board of Health. He would accept Mr. Kuhrts' amendment if the number of carts was limited to thirty. The amendment was carried by a vote of ten to two.

Mr. Collins moved that the number of carts be restricted to thirty. Seconded.

Mr. Lovell said he did not think thirty carts would be enough and asked that it be made forty if necessary. Suggestion accepted and carried.

The report as amended was adopted after the phrase "especially those streets which have been sprinkled heretofore," had been stricken out.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

The Board of Public Works reported as follows:

On petition of S. C. Hubbell and others, to have the lines and grades of Ward street established, recommended that the City Surveyor be instructed to define the lines and propose grade. Adopted.

On petition of M. A. Blanchard et al., to have Figueroa street cut through to Orange street, recommended the same be denied, as steps are now being taken to get an outlet through the Loomis tract. Apopted.

Recommended that the petitions headed by Geo. M. Holton and Wm. Foss, to have Hope street grade changed, be referred to the City Surveyor. Adopted.

Ask further time on all railway franchises. Granted.

On petition of Mrs. Doria Jones et al., to have the Electric Railway poles removed from Pico street, recommended that the Clerk be instructed to notify the railway company to move their poles from the street forthwith. Laid over for one week.

On petition headed by H. W. Hellman and B. Cohn in regard to the paving assessments on curbs, recommended that the City Surveyor prepare a credit list for all cement and granite curbs already laid and that the Clerk deduct from the assessments the amounts charged for curbing where it already exists. Adopted.

Recommended that the petition of B. Blake et al. to have the grade of Beaudry street changed be denied. Adopted.

Recommended that the petition of B. Grant to do his own grading on Vignes street be denied. Adopted.

Recommended on the petition of H. M. Smith et al. to have grade of Pacheco street established that the City Surveyor propose same. Adopted.

Recommended that the City Clerk be instructed to notify the Main street and Agricultural Park R. R. Co. to remove their track on Main street between the court house and First street so as to conform to their line of track below First street. The moving to take place when the paving is done. Adopted.

Recommended the adoption of the ordinance herewith submitted for the amendment of the railroad franchise known as the Griffin franchise, so that a double track shall be laid from First street to the west city boundary. Laid over for one week.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

The recommendation of the Board of Public Works that the petition of Ralph Rogers for a franchise for an electric railway on Hoff street be denied came up. Adopted.

The Main street and Agricultural Park railroad presented a communication stating that it was willing to change its lines and requested that the City Surveyor be instructed to furnish the necessary direction. Referred to the City Attorney and Board of Public Works.

The City Surveyor presented a revised assessment for Main street. Referred to the Board of Public Works with power to act.

A YOUNG BUTCHER'S LUCK.

He Wins $15,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery.

"I want to see a reporter," said an unusually happy-looking individual as he entered the Chronicle Building. On being introduced to one of the staff he commenced by saying that his name was A. J. Trefts and that he lived in Butchertown. As there was a very large fire recently in that part of the city there was apparently no great reason for such unusual joy as that manifested by Mr. Trefts. He. however, was very anxious to communicate the news of a godsend which had fallen to him soon after he had been burnt out.

"I am the fellow. I won it. Just bought one ticket and got $15,000. That's luck, isn't it?" said the jovial Trefts.

Then it began to dawn upon the reporter that he was really in the presence of another one of the lucky holders of a winning number of a Louisiana lottery prize. Mr. Trefts had come down of his own free will to tell of his lucky venture.

"I could hardly believe my eyes when I read that number," said he, "52,749. I looked at my ticket and turned it over and laid it down beside the paper and compared it and then I began to think I was the luckiest man I ever met. Just think, one ticket and all that money for $1!"

"What are you going to do now, Mr. Trefts?" asked the interviewer.

"I am going to extend my business right away, or that fire nearly did for me. I didn't believe much in The Louisiana State Lottery before, and I just thought to myself when I bought the ticket, 'well I've lost enough already, this dollar will never be missed,' and now you may be sure I never stop thinking how glad I was I bought it, and so I thought I would drop in and tell you all about it."—San Francisco (Cal.) Chronicle, July 2nd.

Nadeau Vineyard Land Co.—Lively and Healthy Subscriptions.

As was generally predicted at the inauguration of this enterprise, subscriptions to the capital stock of the company are already both active and liberal, and if continued at the present rate will soon absorb the $400,000—the amount agreed on to be placed upon the market. The treasurer yesterday reported a block of $130,000 taken by M. L. Wicks, $20,000 by R. P. and J. O. Lotspeich and $20,000 by W. S. Hughes. Also, smaller subscriptions aggregating over $15,000. As certificates are now ready for issue from the offices of Francisco, Stuart & Okey, 120 West First street, and A. W. Barrett & Co., 6 Court street, no further delay will occur in pushing business.

PROSPECTUS

— OF THE —

COMPTON ARTESIAN WATER COMPANY.

There has been secured, just over the "divide," due west from Compton, 300 acres of ARTESIAN WATER LAND, on which are now developed NINE ABUNDANTLY FLOWING WELLS of the Finest Artesian Water, two of which are quite strongly impregnated with White Sulphur.

ONE HUNDRED ACRES

Of this tract, as has been demonstrated by actual test on various portions of it, Artesian Wells can be had on every square rod, at a depth of from 90 to 500 feet, the latter depth going down through three different water-bearing stratas, which are about 200 feet in depth.

With the exception of 30 acres of the Pomeroy-Burlingame tract, adjacent on the north, this is the ONLY ARTESIAN BELT west of the mesa between Compton and the immense body of land between it and the San Pedro and Santa Monica Bays. This water con be taken out at a level from 60 to 80 feet above tide-water. It can be had in unlimited quantities and can be easily piped over 40,000 to 50,000 acres of land on the San Pedro, the McDonald, the Sausel Redondo and the Freeman Ranchos. While there is surface water to be had at a depth of from 50 to 150 feet, generally it is not of the best quality and has to be pumped by power for domestic or irrigating purposes. The Artesian water on the the 300 acres alluded to is found on the west bank of a ravine, half a mile east of the Wilmington Telephone road, which ravine trends to the southwest. On the west side of the ravine no Artesian water can be developed.

It is proposed to put this water and the land adjacent, which controls the right of way to the lowland, into which will not only utilize the immense amount which is now daily flowing to waste, but to sink numerous other wells as the demand increases, as it is certain to do, for the land in that region is being rapidly bought up, subdivided and disposed of in 20 to 40-acre tracts. Each of these occupiers must have this water, because it can be furnished cheaper than any other, and also because it is absolutely pure and free from any sediment, to say nothing medicinal qualities.

The capital stock will be divided into 30,000 shares of the par value of $5 each, 50 per cent. of which will be required in cash, and the balance in six months and one year, at 8 per cent. Subscriptions to the stock will be received at my new office, 316 N. Main Street, in the Real Estate Exchange.

Stockholders may pay the amount of their subscriptions into the First National Bank, where it will remain until they meet, organize and elect officers, who are to expend the money for the purposes of deveiopment.

Surveys and levels are now being made, and maps and plans of the territory to be watered and covered will be prepared at the earliest possible moment, where they may be inspected and all other information obtained as above.

The persons who control a permanent supply of water in Southern California have a better thing than a valuable gold mine.

The Water in this Scheme will be Stocked, but the Stock will not be Watered.

Nadeau Vineyard Land Company

JOHN I. REDICK, Treasurer. WM. WHITE, Secretary.

Capital Stock, - - $1,200,000

1200 SHARES OF $100 EACH.

☞The company is now fully organized and ready for business. Four hundred thousand dollars of the stock is offered for investment and is being rapidly taken by home capitalists.

☞This grand domain is only two and one-half miles south of the corporate limits of Los Angeles, and comprises 3254 acres of the best land in Southern California, 2326 acres of which is in healthy and profitable vineyards. A branch of the Southern Pacific Company's railroad to San Pedro passes along the west side of the land and the Santa Ana or San Diego branch of the same company passes through the tract from west to east. The Ballona branch of the California Central passes along the northern boundary, while the San Diego branch will pass through the tract for two miles on the northern portion of the rancho. These remarkable railroad facilities make the land especially valuable for manufacturing purposes and it is understood that the owners will give generous grants of land to railways for car shops, storage houses for protection and painting of cars, nail factories, iron works, planing mills and paper mills. Shipments can be made from the rancho to all parts of the country by lines that lead in every direction.

☞The managers of this property think the outlook justifies the anticipation of being able to sell, in subdivision, eight hundred or a thousand acres of this property for enough money to return them the entire cost of $1,200,000, and have remaining a property that will pay a good return on an investment of $5,000,000.

☞The sale of 4000 shares, now at par, is to pay the incumbrances on the land, and for gathering and manufacturing the present enormous grape crop, estimated at 16,000,000 pounds.

Subscriptions for stock are now being taken at the offices of Alhambra Electric Tract.

Located in the Charming Villa f

ALHAMBRA,

Six miles distant on the railroad and one mile from the Raymond Hotel in the beautiful Valley of San Gabriel, and within two blocks of the new hotel just completed.

This Tract we now offer for sale, consists of 7 acres cut into ONLY 30 LOTS. These are the largest lots nearest to center of ALHAMBRA ever put on the market and for the least money so desirably located, being on Main street on which the proposed Electric line is located from Monrovia to Los Angeles via Alhambra.

Over one-third of these lots will sell to-day for $1000 each. On one lot is a dwelling-house worth $750, and on the other a barn and out-building worth $350. Most of this tract is covered with the finest bearing fruit trees. Water piped to every lot.

These lots will be sold at a uniform price of $560 each, including buildings. Terms: $200 cash, $180 in 6 months and $180 in 12 months at 8 per cent per annum. Certificate of title furnished with each lot. Distribution of lots will be made immediately after sale of tract, which will commence

Thursday Morning at 9 O'clock, July 28th, at 112 North Spring Street.

This is first class property and we solicit your investigation. For plats and full particulars call on Providencia Land, Water and Development COMPANY.

Incorporated Dec. 24, 1886. Capital Stock, $5,000,000.00

L. T. GURNSEY, President. W. K. GOUCHER, Vice Presrdent.
T. E. PLEATER, Treasurer. T. W. T. RICHARDS, Secretary.

DIRECTORS:

L. T. GURNSEY, H. L MACNEIL, T. W. T. RICHARDS, W. H. GOUCHER, A. E. HALL, G. W. KING, J. DOWNEY HARVEY, D. BURBANK, JAMES McCUDDEN.

This company is now offering for sale 17,000 acres of fine Fruit and Alfalfa Land (less 2,000 sold since April 1st) in subdivisions of from five to forty acre tracts, in the famous Providencia and Scott Ranchos. These Ranches are conceded by all good judges of property to be the finest in the country. Located only ten miles from the Court House, on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railway Company, with ten passenger trains passing the tract daily.

Sidewalks have been laid, and the depot building is now being rapidly erected. An excellent hotel, of which a perspective can be seen at the company's office, is nearly completed.

Fourteen new residences and business blocks are already up, and contracts for ten additional residences have been let. Ninety-three thousand feet of pipe has been distributed over the townsite preparatory to placing it under ground. Ties, rails and rolling stock for the Street Car Line have been ordered, and all the improvements advertised by the company will be pushed to a rapid conclusion.

The development of water in quantities far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its projectors, has given an assurance that their ability to supply water for townsite and irrigating purposes in abundance is an unquestioned fact.

Reservoir No. 1, with a capacity of one and a half million gallons of water daily, will be completed July 15th, and water of the purest quality, sparkling and clear, piped in front of each lot.

Reservoir No. 2 with a capacity of 2,000,000 gallons of water daily, pouring water in abundance into an irrigating ditch already commenced, and being rapidly pushed to completion, to supply the water to 1700 acres of land which comes below the water drill.

The advantageous location of Burbank, its unsurpassed railway facilities, its beautiful and picturesque surroundings, together with the benefits to be derived from the freight and passenger traffic in connection with the future development of the immense valley of which it is the Crown Gem, recommends it to the people of Southern California as the most desirable and popular suburban town in the State in which to invest. The Fire in Palmer & Rey's Type Foundry, San Francisco.

Messrs. Palmer & Rey state that the fire in their foundry will not affect their filling orders for type and material and presses, as they had a large stock made up and stored in their warehouses that were not burnt. The fire was confined to the manufacturing departments only, the stock upon the lower floor only being wet with water. The firm employed over a hundred and fifty people, who are now thrown out of work, but Mr. Palmer, who is here, but leaving for home to-day, says that no effort will be left undone to rent other quarters and get the full force to work again, while they repair their present building. The printers of this section can get their supplies from the Messrs. Palmer & Rey's Los Angeles branch house, situated at 115 and 117 Los Angeles street. During the past few weeks their stock here has been made very complete.

News Notes.

Real estate transfers yesterday amounted to $525,165.

The ground has been broken for the new Cahuenga hotel, west of the city.

The Goff tract of thirty acres, at Alhambra, was sold yesterday for $70,000.

About $200,000 of stock of the Nadeau Vineyard Company was subscribed yesterday.

The ladies of the Christian church on Temple street will hold a social in the church this evening.

Miss Martha J. Gilman, formerly of Pasadena, Cal., died in Meredith, N. H., yesterday. She had many friends in this city.

The track of the Ballona railroad is already laid about eight miles from the California Central depot of this city, and will be completed to Ballona next week.

The team of Mr. H. Burlingame of Compton ran off yesterday on Los Angeles street. Mr. Burlingame was somewhat injured and the wagon was completely wrecked.

The Kuhrts street bridge is nearly completed and the assessment for opening North Main street to the bridge is being collected. The street cannot be opened too soon.

A jolly party consisting of Dr. Will Lindley, R. Bronson, Dick Zellner, B. F. Coulter, H. A. Childs and C. F. Hunter start for Catalina Island this morning to be gone two weeks.

Splendid music for the Mikado dance at Armory Hall to-night after "High Tea," will be furnished by Professor Winn C. Stone. Members of the committee will appear in Mikado costumes.

Surveyors were yesterday at work running lines for the Anaheim branch of the California Central railway from Los Angeles. Col. F. T. Perris is expected here to-day to locate the line through the Nadeau vineyard property.

Many people complain that the approaches to the Buena Vista street bridge are not sprinkled. The bridge is very popular and well patronized by the people, but the dust is most undesirable and should be abated as soon as possible.

It is reported that a syndicate is being formed to purchase the magnificent Banning homestead at Wilmington. If this effort is successful a grand hotel will be built on the site of the present residence. This seems to be a very good proposition.

Riverside has at last waked up and is building a hotel to cost $250,000. It is to be done in January. A syndicate of wealthy people of Los Angeles will erect a hotel in this city at some future day to cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. This last statement is not verified.

The great steam dredger at Port Ballona has commenced operations and is doing a most valuable work. From the manner in which this machine works there will soon be room for a large number of vessels within this land locked basin. The dredger appears to be a success.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church will give a sociable at the residence of Capt. Thomas Meredith, corner of Downey avenue and Hellman street, East Los Angeles, Tuesday evening, July 26th. Cake and ice cream will be served. Old and young are cordially invited to be present.

The fine Barton raisin vineyard at Fresno has been purchased by an English company on private terms, but the price is evidently high. There were about 640 acres in this vineyard, but the company will increase the acreage to 1000. This purchase will pay the buyers four times London rates for the use of their money, and they know it.

The graders on the dummy road from East Los Angeles to Glendale have skipped the land of the man who refused right of way, and have gone beyond him and graded the way to Glendale. They can grade around him if they choose, or have his land condemned for a right of way. One or the other line of operations will be settled upon at once.

Six weeks ago Mr. S. E. Bisbee bought a house and lot on Ninth street, between Main and Fort streets, for which he paid $3500. No sooner had Bisbee set up his household goods and started in to live the life of a Christian, than along comes a man who offers him $7000 for his place. The temptation is great and Bisbee accepts. It is said Richard Garvey, who owns several lots adjoining the Bisbee place, is the purchaser, and that he will put up a large brick block.

Intelligent Animals.

The exhibition of Prof. Bartholomew's educated horses at the Opera House last night was by far the best entertainment of its kind ever seen in this city. The animals seem to know that they are performing for the amusement of the audience, and all their actions show that they look to it for commendation. From the time when the school convened at the rise of the curtain until the end of the battle scene the intelligence exhibited was really wonderful. The programme was entertaining throughout, and each animal seemed to know the part he took as well as any actor seen on the boards and to obey the spoken commands of their master without the least hesitation. The most striking parts af the performance are the "court scene," the "military drill," "a night in camp," and the "battle." There will be a matinee to-morrow, and also on Friday and Saturday afternoons.

An Unfortunate Mechanic.

Dan Hayes, an aged mechanic, was found lying upon the sidewalk on First street last evening by Officer Little, who took him to the police station. He moaned terribly and complained of suffering great pain from rheumatism. On his person was found $56.20. The unfortunate individual was placed in a cell as the city has not a suitable place for the reception of unfortunates who need medical treatment.

Personal Mention.

W. Curlett, of San Francisco, is at the St. Elmo.

Mrs. George H. Craft, of Crafton, is in the city.

Geo. D. Monroe, of Monrovia, is at the Pico House.

W. H. Robinson, of Azusa, is at the Grand Central.

George A. Knight, of San Francisco, is visiting Los Angeles.

Judge T. S. Smith, of San Fernando, is at the St. Charles.

Ed Thompson, of Colton, is registered at the St. Charles.

J. G. McCall, of San Francisco, is in the city on business.

W. G. Worsham, of Whittier, is registered at the Hotel Oxford.

J. W. Byrne, of the San Joaquin Rancho, is stopping at the St. Elmo.

Dr. S. P. Guiberson and daughter, of Santa Paula, are registered at the St. Elmo.

Victor Montgomery, of Santa Ana, is at the St. Elmo. He is engaged in the Bodkin trial.

Mr. T. H. Ward will leave to-day for Santa Barbara, where he will make arrangementt for the approaching excursion of the Knights Templar.

J. E. Calvin, of the Brunswick, has returned from a two weeks' trip to the seaside and is again at his post of duty. "Cal" is sunburned, but has gained in flesh.

Mr. John H. West, a leading real estate dealer of Santa Ana, was in the city yesterday and paid the HERALD a pleasant call. John is looking well, and the prosperity that he so well deserves has come to him.

Mr. E. Cawston, of the Washington Garden ostrich farm, has returned from an extended tour in the north and reports Yosemite Valley crowded with tourists, the hotels being full and the number of out-door campers very large.

T. H. Goodman, general passenger agent of the S. P. company, is spending a pleasant season at Santa Monica. Col. Goodman needs a rest from his arduous duties and it is pleasant to see him in the best place for rest and recreation.

Judge Joe B. Banning, of the Wilmington Transportation Company, who has been visiting his friends and relations at St. Paul, Minn., for some weeks past, is again at home. The Judge is looking a little thin from the effects of the hot weather East, but he will pick up when winter comes. There are very few boys in Southern California so thoroughly liked as Joe Banning, and he was almost overwhelmed with congratulations on his safe return.

Another Burglary.

The grocery store of Mr. Butterfield, 304 South Main street, was broken into by thieves on Sunday night, who carried away a quantity of cigarettes and a number of pass and order books. From the nature of the stuff taken it is probable that the thieves were either boys or men unacquainted with values.

The Highest Authority.

William Hammond Hall, the State Engineer, who has had years of experience in land and water in California, after a full examination of the Rancho Ex-Mission of San Fernando, reports to the owners of the property, the Porter Land and Water Company, as follows: "You have 10,000 to 11,000 acres, and perhaps more, of really first-rate valley lands for cultivation, with soils not to be surpassed for fertility and desirability by those of any section; lying very favorably for irrigation and in a neighborhood whose climate is well adapted to the best class of agricultural, horticultural and vineyard productions usual in this country." Mr. Hall has been employed by the company to devise a complete plan for the irrigation of the tract with the waters flowing from San Fernando, Sycamore and Pacoima creeks, and from the immense cienegas located upon the ranch, and the public may expect the finest water system in California upon this property. Office, room No. 9, Los Angeles National Bank building, corner First and Spring streets. A man always at San Fernando, with conveyances, to show the property.

Nasal Catarrh

Treated upon a new principle, founded upon the fact that the disease is parasitic in its origin. The parasites can be demonstrated by the microscope, and will present the appearance shown below:

(PARASITES MAGNIFIED 480 TIMES.)

This disease, which has proved so obstinate to the general practitioner, who probably does not cure five per cent. of his cases, is conquered readily by our new treatment. Over 2000 cases have been treated during the last three years in this city by this new treatment, and in fully ninety per cent. successfully.

Hundreds of references can be given.

Medical Inhalation Combined with Constitutional Remedies.

Our treatment of the diseases of the respiratory passages consists in the employment of Medical Inhalation, for its direct effects on the diseased organs; and, at the same time, adopting such hygienic measures, and administering such medicines by the stomach as will most effectually purify the blood, give tone to the nervous system and build up and strengthen the general constitution. In other words, employ combined local and general treatment.

What is medical inhalation? Before stating briefly what medical inhalation is, we propose, in as few words as possible, to state clearly what it is not.

Medical Inhalation is not a cure-all, a nostrum, or a panacea. It is not a specific remedy for any disease. It is not a quack medicine, advertised to cure any and all the ills that flesh is heir to, and intended to fill the pockets of its proprietors. It is not a talisman whose possession insures health to its possessor without the intervention of either sense or judgment. Medical inhalation is none of these things.

Medical Inhalation is simply and solely a method of taking medicines by inhaling or breathing them into the lungs, instead of swallowing them into the stomach. By inhalation the proper medicines are applied directly to the seat of the disease, in the nose, throat or lungs; and it is clear to every reasoning person how peculiarly applicable inhalation is in the disorders of the orgnns named. If you have scalded or burned the surface of the body, or wounded any limb or member, you do not swallow the remedy intended to heal the disorganized tissues. On the contrary you apply it directly to the seat of the wound or injury. Why, then, when suffering from catarrh of the nasal passages or throat, or afflicted with ulceration of the lungs, should you rely on medicines taken into the stomach?

Our experience and success in treating diseases of the nose, throat and lungs demonstrates, beyond all question, that the true scientific treatment of these diseases is that treatment which combines the local effect of medical inhalation with the constitutional effects of systemic remedies, given in the usual way by the stomach. One or both methods must be adopted as the circumstances demand, and such remedies must be employed as the experience and judgment of the physician have proved to be proper in each particular case.

CATARRH!

Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma

CONSUMPTION

Eye, Ear and Heart

Successfully treated by

M. Hilton Williams, M. D., M. C. P. S. O.

No. 275 Main Street,

LOS ANGELES, CAL.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most Improved Medicated Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Over 75,000 cases treated during the past twenty years for some form of head, throat or lung trouble.

CATARRH

To those who are afflicted with any of the different forms of Catarrh, we would say, there is no disease which presents a greater diversity of symptoms, none more loathsome insidious and dangerous than Nasal Catarrh, especially if complicated, as it almost always is, even from its first appearance, with an affection of the throat.

From the earliest symptoms (which are generally attributed to a "cold in the head") to the various ugly and distressing stages through which the disease passes, the patient is hopeful of recovery, and rarely gives it proper attention until certain alarming symptoms present themselves, denoting unmistakably the rapid advance of the malady to the lungs. Indeed, so various are the symptoms that the presence of the disease is not always known or even suspected, until it has reached a stage difficult to arrest. The disease may or may not be attended by a discharge from the nostrils or throat, but there is usually present a morbid secretion and a frequent disposition (especially in the morning) to clear the throat, and the effort to do so is often, though not always, attended by expectoration; there is a sensation of heaviness in the frontal part of the head, and the brain sometimes suffers to an extent producing headache, vertigo and confusion; it becomes difficult to think clearly, and to concentrate the mind; the memory becomes impaired and the intellect enfeebled; despondency of spirits and an excitable condition of the nervous system. Such is the effect of the disease, and if to this train of symptoms (which not infrequently leads to to insanity or idiocy) we add many of the more loathsome physical effects, as cassles, or rottenness of the bones of the face and head, a most offensive smell to the breath, and corrupt, morbid and poisonous secretions, destruction or the serious injury of the sense of smell, hearing, sight and taste, we have a catalogue of horrors which would lead any person to make early and proper efforts to eradicate the disease from the system. Every case of Catarrh is curable if properly treated.

BRONCHITIS.

Acute Bronchitis is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes, and is one of the most common of the pulmonary diseases. It is a dangerous disease, as it prevents the oxygenation of the blood, and in many cases, particularly after it passes into the chronic stage, the substance of the lungs becomes seriously involved, giving rise to what is very properly called Bronchial Consumption. In the acute form there is a sense of lightness or pressure across the chest, with considerable wheezing, severe coughs and expectoration. This is at first a white glary mucous, which, after a time, becomes purulent. The patient in some cases is obliged to sit up in bed, the oppression across the chest is so great; the skin is clammy and prostration rapidly sets in, and in fatal cases there will be muttering delirium, coma and death.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Chronic Bronchitis is also an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes. When a cold settles on the lungs the disease either ends in bronchitis or pneumonia. If it ends in bronchitis it usually passes off as a cold on the chest, and still the patient does not feel entirely well. He feels tired and languid, and is incapable of taking his usual amount of exercise, and experiences a shortness of breath with more or less warmth in the palms of his hands. Soon after this a cough appears, accompanied by an expectoration of thick mucus, followed by a hectic flush, loss of flesh and strength and night sweats continue, when the patient assumes all the appearances of having a genuine case of consumption. But this is simply catarrh of the lungs or chronic bronchitis.

In the later stage of the disease the mucus membrane of the larger bronchial tube softens, while in the smaller tubes and air cells of the lungs the mucus membrane becomes congested and inflammed. There are no cavaties nor tubercles in the lungs, but merely a wasting away of the larger bronchial tubes, and death takes place from obstruction of the bronchial tubes and air cells of the lungs. The patient dies from exhaustion and suffocation, being unable to expectorate the mucus which accumulates in the passage leading to the lungs, which in some cases is sticky and small in quantity, but more commonly copious, of a light straw or yellowish green. Oftentimes streaks of blood make their appearance in the mucus, and at times there is a disagreeable smell. Persons thus afflicted are very liable to take a cold, at which time the mucus becomes clear and frothy, and it is not uncommonly the case that the patient dies in one of these attacks

CONSUMPTION.

From consumers, "to waste away," usually applied to the advanced stage of lung disease.

The following are prominent symptoms in the first stage, and wherever any of them exist a thorough examination should be made, with a view to arresting the disease as shown to exist: There is usually a sense of weariness upon a little exercise, a disposition to remain passive and idle, despondency, often from no apparent cause, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of cold, and a breathlessness upon moving quickly or descending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, excitability upon slight occasions, flying pains through the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are more noticeable toward or during the night, slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet or hands, or, in many cases, blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger-nails.

Constitutional or tubercular consumption is a common form of lung disease. The progress is slow, but if left to itself is no less sure. It usually begins with a dry cough. At first these tubercles are exceedingly minute, the patient not at all suspecting their presence. Gradually they develop into more active disease, and then follows the train of symptoms which leaves no doubt as to its true character. Sometimes spitting of blood or slight streaks in the mucus is the first indication of tubercular deposits, or it may be a chilly sensation in the back, followed by more or less heat in the palms of the hands, or an afternoon flush on the cheeks. The slow and gradual inroads of this form of consumption leave the stomach and appetite undisturbed for a considerable time. Finally, however, hectic fever and night sweats supervene, preceded by diarrhoea. Then the loss of flesh and strength becomes rapid, the chest contracts, the features sharpen, the eye at times an unusual brilliancy and the patient begins to realize that he is in the last stage of confirmed constitutional consumption.

Inhalations are applicable to all diseases of the respiratory organs, including catarrh, throat diseases, asthma, bronchitis, consumption, and thousands of cases can be cured by this mode of treatment when nothing else can cure them.

We would particularly urge upon our eastern friends the necessity of direct medication—Inhalation—as well as the most favorable climatic influences, if you wish to avoid the sad experience of hundreds of invalids who depend on the climate alone, as nine cases out of ten die in consequence of this very thing.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in disolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities which nothing else can do with the same success.
